

Top Reasons Independent Dealers Belong to FIADA

Auction Buy/Sell Fee Discounts

- FIADA's relationship with auctions provides you with over $1,000 in discounts on auction buy / sell fees. That's $1,000 in immediate cash flow savings.
- In addition, you will receive over $6,000 in discounts on advertising, software, education, forms, shipping, office supplies and more.

Help Your Business Win

- As a member, you're part of an association that's 70 years old. So, even if you're just starting out, you don't have to look like it. You will have access to the FIADA logo for use on your print and electronic communications. You will also receive the FIADA Code of Ethics Certificate and a FIADA Member Decal to display in your store location.
- Pick up new ideas and network with other dealers and industry service providers at our annual convention and quarterly board meetings.
- Need to contact another dealer in another part of the state or across the country? With FIADA's online member directory you can contact dealers across the state for assistance. Have a customer that moved across the country? Through our affiliation with NIADA, FIADA is a part of a nationwide network of independent dealers that can assist you with finding your customers and your cars.
- FIADA Members Who Must Complete DMV required online continuing education every 2 years. Simply login with your Member ID and password to complete it every 2 years.
- By donating to the Political Action Committee you can directly support candidates and elected officials in state offices who have a positive relationship with the automobile industry.

Industry Compliance Made Simple

- Keep abreast of the latest rules and regulations affecting Florida's Independent Dealer. FIADA publishes Independent Dealer magazine to keep you up-to-date. Also as late breaking changes occur, FIADA will keep you updated via email blasts.
- Stay compliant with new federal regulations. FIADA provides the tools and resources necessary for dealers to comply with the Red Flags Rule and Safeguards Rule.
- FIADA members also have access to information regarding other compliance issues such as sales tax, titles and registrations.
- Have questions about the automobile industry? As an FIADA member, help is always just a phone call away. FIADA members have unlimited access to our in-house expertise to give assistance to common problems that can be cumbersome and technical.
