

Joseph A. Knoll, MSN, APRN

Joseph, better known as “Joey”, is an Advanced Practice Registered Nurse and serves as the CEO for SPEKTRUM Health, a non-profit community health clinic that he founded to serve the LGBTQ community. Though he was born in Upstate NY, he has called Orlando home for 17 years. He enjoys all that Florida has to offer including the sun, sand and water! For fun he enjoys being around friends, traveling and boating. He is most well known for his advocacy work for health policy, HIV treatment and prevention as well as his extensive experience and advocacy for the rights and healthcare needs of the transgender community. He is known for public speaking and training on both of these topics throughout the country.
