

Dr. Kimberly Kasper

---

Dr. Kimberly Kasper has been a Nurse Practitioner for greater than 19 years with her past/current experience including 27 years working in emergency/ trauma/internal medicine services as an EMT, RN, ARNP, with focus on sexual assault of adolescences, adults and elders all over the country, with 9 years in the USAF as a flight nurse. She is the past President of the International Association of Forensic Nurses. She has led research focused on the effects of violence on patients across the lifespan, Trauma Informed Care and its impact on practice. Dr. Kasper holds additional memberships with the FNA, AANP, NONPF , AFS and AAFS. She is a full time faculty at Duquesne University teaching in the Family Nurse Practitioner and Advanced Practice Forensic Program and has a clinical practice serving undeserved populations in Northwest Florida.

