Martin County Clerk Carolyn Timmann Named CJJIS Council Chair

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Martin County Clerk and Comptroller Carolyn Timmann was named chair of the Criminal and Juvenile Justice Information Systems (CJJIS) Council this week in Jacksonville. Clerk Timmann was nominated for the position by fellow council members representing agencies from across the Florida judicial system.

Created by Florida Statutes within the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, the CJJIS Council provides statewide oversight of justice information systems and data while developing plans and policies to facilitate the coordination of information sharing and interoperability, and ensuring appropriate access and security.

Clerk Timmann has served as the Clerks' representative on the council since first being appointed by Gov. Rick Scott in March 2014. She also serves as chair of the council's Resource Committee.
