Florida Court Clerks & Comptrollers Announces 2017-18 Board Leadership

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The Florida Court Clerks & Comptrollers (FCCC) 2017-18 Board of Directors was installed last week in Panama City Beach during the organization's annual summer conference. Led by the incoming President, Franklin County Clerk of the Court and Comptroller Marcia M. Johnson, board members will serve one-year terms.

Executive Committee Officers include Palm Beach County Clerk Sharon R. Bock, Esq. (President-Elect), Polk County Clerk Stacy M. Butterfield, CPA (Vice President), Clay County Clerk Tara S. Green (Treasurer) and Manatee County Clerk Angelina "Angel" Colonnese, Esq. (Secretary).

District Directors include Gulf County Clerk Rebecca "Becky" L. Norris (District I), Taylor County Clerk Annie Mae Murphy (District II), Columbia County Clerk P. DeWitt Cason (District III), Hernando County Clerk Don Barbee Jr., Esq. (District IV), Orange County Clerk Tiffany Moore Russell, Esq. (District V), Pinellas County Clerk Ken Burke, CPA (District VI) and Lee County Clerk Linda Doggett (District VII).

The Immediate Past President of FCCC is Nassau County Clerk John A. Crawford.

"I am deeply honored to be this year's President of our outstanding organization, as well as a member of its first all-female Executive Committee," Clerk Johnson said. "I look forward to working shoulder to shoulder with the clerks and comptrollers of Florida's 67 counties and leading the Association to be the strongest and the best it can be."
