Court Clerks 'Play Cupid' This Valentine's Day Hosting Group Wedding Ceremonies

TALLAHASSEE – Ten Clerks of Court across the state will be hosting group marriage ceremonies this Feb. 14. A popular choice for couples looking to marry or renew their vows, these events bring together dozens to say “I do” on the most romantic day of the year. Some couples participate because of their wish to be wed by the Clerk of Court directly, while others enjoy the opportunity to marry at a historic courthouse. Whatever the reason, they are part of a bigger community celebration that makes Valentine's Day even more memorable.

Event details by participating county are highlighted below including links for additional information. Ceremony registration and marriage license application deadlines are Feb. 9, 2018 for all counties unless otherwise noted. While some Clerks have waived ceremony fees*, the standard license/renewal fees still apply.
