Taylor County Official Receives Clerk of the Year Award Clerk Annie Mae Murphy Honored by Florida Court Clerks & Comptrollers (FCCC)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The Honorable Annie Mae Murphy, Taylor County Clerk of the Court and Comptroller, was presented with the 2017-18 Clerk of the Year Award by outgoing FCCC President Marcia M. Johnson during the association's 40th Anniversary Summer Conference last week in West Palm Beach.

During presentation of the Clerk of the Year award, Johnson described Murphy as “consistently up-front and honest; a true public servant with the highest moral character.” Johnson also praised Murphy's long record of service to Taylor County: 55 years in the clerk's office, with 26 years as the elected clerk of court and comptroller.

Murphy has served on the FCCC board of directors for 10 years, and she currently sits on the Constitution and Bylaws Committee.

The Clerk of the Year Award is presented to an FCCC member who has demonstrated outstanding leadership skills, and a commitment to the association's mission of improving the ability of clerks and comptrollers to serve Floridians through professional education, legislative action and public awareness of the office.

FCCC is a statewide nonprofit member association composed of Florida's clerks of the circuit court and comptrollers. In most counties, the clerk of the circuit court also serves as the county treasurer, recorder, auditor, finance officer, and ex-officio clerk of the county commission. FCCC provides technical assistance and accreditation opportunities for all members of the association, as well as local government support services. For more information, visit www.flclerks.com.
