2017
ANNUAL REPORT
LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Nonprofits are closely aligned with their local communities. It is one of their strengths. But success also requires being aware of national, state and local trends, and constantly scanning the horizons for potential threats and opportunities. That’s what the Florida Nonprofit Alliance does for nonprofits, working in every county of our state. Connecting the dots, to enable nonprofits to focus on delivering their missions.

In 2017, FNA launched member only policy calls to discuss public policy updates like the Johnson Amendment and Federal Tax Reform. We cheered loud and far about the economic impact of our sector with you, our elected officials, and community stakeholders.

In 2018, FNA will complete the state’s first nonprofit compensation report and survey our residents on their preferences on charitable giving. I want to ensure our organization continues to give you the tools you need to advocate for your organization.

Thank you for trusting us to speak on your behalf.

MEET OUR 2017-18 BOARD CHAIR

UPENDO SHABAZ

Q: YOU HAVE A BROAD VIEW OF THE STATE NONPROFIT COMMUNITY, AS A BOARD MEMBER AND A FUNDER. HOW DO YOU SEE FLORIDA NONPROFIT ALLIANCE’S ROLE?

A: Florida Nonprofit Alliance’s role is very important in today’s world - there are so many influencers to this sector that leadership is critical to bring common sense, strategy, advocacy and collective support. FNA represents this Leadership for Florida. Our role is also one of “protector” - as this sector faces serious financial difficulties as tides shift forcing nonprofits to do more with less.

Q: PART OF OUR STATED MISSION IS TO ADVOCATE FOR THE NONPROFIT SECTOR. DO YOU HAVE THOUGHTS ABOUT EXPANDING OUR EFFORTS IN THIS AREA?

A: Since its inception, advocacy has been a central part of the work that we do on behalf of the nonprofit sector. FNA has done an outstanding job in Tallahassee supporting efforts that impact the sector. We have established the Florida Charitable Advisory partnership that speaks to our expanding role in this space. I anticipate we will continue to look for advocacy opportunities to elevate this sector.

Q: DO YOU HAVE A PARTICULAR LEADERSHIP PRIORITY AS YOU STEP IN THE CHAIRMAN’S ROLE?

A: My leadership priority is very simple - to give power to the nonprofit sector by-way of building the operational capacity of Florida Nonprofit Alliance!

Economic Impact Report

From community organizations to associations, nonprofits play an active role in a wide range of settings throughout Florida – from providing healthcare to serving as financial institutions, protecting the environment to promoting the arts.

The diversity of offerings provided by nonprofits can make the sector’s impact seem smaller than it is; thus, it is important to understand the contribution the nonprofit sector makes to statewide employment and to highlight its significance and economic contribution to our overall economy.

With broad distribution across the state in employment, nonprofits are a stabilizing force in many communities. Maintaining the critical infrastructure the nonprofit sector provides to our economy is crucial to Florida’s health and economic vitality.
At JPMorgan Chase & Co., we believe that a strong nonprofit sector is essential to driving inclusive economic growth in our communities. We are proud to have supported Florida Nonprofit Alliance’s Nonprofit Economic Impact report, which highlighted the importance of the nonprofit sector to our local economies, and provided the private, public and nonprofit sectors with key data points to better advocate for and invest in the sector.

Nonprofit Viewpoint

Consortium of Florida Education Foundations

We represent the local education foundations aligned with Florida’s school districts and, while we do monitor issues directly related to the K-12 arena and our members, we have found great value in the more holistic perspectives and input we receive through the Florida Nonprofit Alliance. The regular legislative updates are incredibly valuable in giving us greater context for the issues we pay attention to on a regular basis. We have access to the latest information on both a state and national level and can alert our group about issues and opportunities to engage. FNA does a great job of making complicated legislative issues understandable and approachable by nonprofits of all types. It’s so important to have an entity monitoring issues on behalf of all Florida nonprofits. It’s also important for us to broaden our understanding of the big picture issues impacting the nonprofit sector to inform our individual advocacy for the issues we individually care about. We find great value in our FNA membership for both these reasons.
