

Email this form to the FTGA no later than June 30 too:
Heather@FTGA.org

PRESIDENT’S AWARD NOMINEE INFORMATION
Nominator Information
President’s Awards Description
One Award Will Be Presented During the Annual Meeting & Awards Ceremony
Sports Field of the Year – Facility level award. The Sports Field of the Year is awarded to a sports field facility that has exemplified the values of the Florida Turfgrass Association. This facility is recognized for its premier turfgrass playing conditions and practices sustainable turfgrass management. Golf Course of the Year - Facility level award. The Golf Course of the Year is awarded to a sports field facility that has exemplified the values of the Florida Turfgrass Association. This facility is recognized for its premier turfgrass playing conditions and practices sustainable turfgrass management. Lawn Care Operator of the Year – Individual employee recognition. Nominated by their employer. The Lawn Care Operator of the Year is awarded to an individual who promotes the values of the Florida Turfgrass Association. They have shown a dedication to supporting the turfgrass industry as well as their own professional growth. They are recognized by their employer and as leaders in their organization and community. Advocacy Award – Individual Award. The Advocacy Award is awarded to an individual who has proven themselves to be a leader in the turfgrass industry and advocates on behalf of Florida Turfgrass Association members. They have developed relationships with legislators and continue to be a strong voice for the turfgrass industry. Research/Innovation Award – Individual award. May go to a researcher, turf producer, or other FTGA member. The Research and Innovation award is awarded to an individual who has made a recognizable contribution to the turfgrass industry through their research of new turfgrasses, new products, unique production methods, or improved sustainability practices. Environmental Stewardship – Facility level or individual award. The Environmental Stewardship award is awarded to a facility or individual who has excelled in environmental protection while being an advocate in the turfgrass industry for sustainability. They promote the message of environmental stewardship to their staff, their clients, and their community. Industry Support - Manufacturer or Distributor Employee. The Industry Support Award is awarded to a manufacturer or distributor representative who promotes the values of the Florida Turfgrass Association. They have shown a dedication to supporting the turfgrass industry as well as their own professional growth. This individual promotes research, advocacy, and professional relationships in the Turfgrass Industry.

Nominee Employment Information

Nominee Name

Organization, Institution or Firm

Award Qualifications

Nominee's Responsibilities

Select Which President's Award Should be Granted to this Nominee

State briefly why you think this nominee should be recognized with the President's Award.

Outline the nominee's major contribution(s) to the Turfgrass industry in Florida.