BACK2BUSINESS™ NEWS

Apply to the Back2Business Program Today

The Financial Women's Association (FWA), in partnership with BMO Capital Markets, BNY Mellon, New York Life and PGIM, the Global Investment Management Businesses of Prudential, has developed the FWA Back2Business™ Program, a unique program for individuals who have interrupted their careers in financial services for such reasons as, but not limited to, childcare, eldercare or to serve our country.

If selected, you may take part in a paid program with one of our participating organizations that can put you on the right track to reach your career goals. You may work on a significant assignment or project that could lead to a permanent position. If your employer has a re-entry program, it will vary in length depending on the project, but is generally between 90 days and 6 months, or longer.

Hurry, applications are being accepted through April 19, 2019.

WSE is not an internship opportunity. It is a career development program designed to augment and coincide with the summer internship experience of qualified rising college seniors working as summer interns in the New York metropolitan area. The program consists of a series of events hosted by top firms and companies for professional and personal development. We invite you to share this information with prospective qualified young male and female applicants. Click here, for program details, benefits, a preliminary agenda, and application instructions

Applications are due Wednesday, May 15, 2019. There is no cost to students to apply or participate.

DYNAMIC FWA LEADERSHIP INVITE THE PACESETTERS TO CONSIDER MEMBERSHIP

On March 28th, the Pacesetters met at Eversheds Sutherland to learn more about the value of continuing with the FWA as a member after the fiscal year ends. Pacesetter Chair Gerri Bostick introduced the panel of past FWA Presidents, Katrin Dambrot and Betsy Werley, and the Executive Director, Ria Davis. She reminded the Pacesetters of the FWA mission and asked them to consider how closely they are aligned with that mission.
Stephen Zweig recently participated in on “#MeToo Hits Wall Street and What That Means for Women in Finance” as part of the Bloomberg Equality Summit in New York.

The panel included Fatima Goss Graves, president and chief executive officer of the National Women’s Law Center, Jill Faherty Lloyd, managing director and financial adviser at Evercore Wealth Management, in addition to Stephen.

The panel was moderated by Bloomberg's Katia Porzecanski, the author of the Bloomberg “must read” article on “#MeToo Backlash Hits Wall Street: “Avoid Women At All Costs”, in which both FWA President Karen Elinksi and Stephen were quoted.
