TAKE THE SURVEY - Deadline Extended to July 31st

#MeToo Backlash in the Financial Industry - What Do You Believe?

If you have already taken the FWA/STANY survey on male backlash to the #MeToo Movement, thank you!

If you haven't yet, please consider your own self-interest. If male backlash is real, you probably want us to shine a bright light on it. If it is not real, you probably want us to stop carrying on about it. You will help decide whether it is something worth reporting or not. But only if you take the survey. We need a large number of people responding to make the case, one way or the other.

The questions are directed to both men and women.

The survey is non-judgmental and is strictly anonymous. It should take no more than a few minutes to complete.

Please submit by July 31st, 2019 to be part of this survey.
