FWA PODCAST

Available through April 16th

Discovering Your Personal Productivity Style

In celebration of International Women's Day, the FWA launched its first podcast on March 9, 2020. Our first guest speaker is Carson Tate of Working Simply, a dynamic teacher and coach who is known for igniting personal transformation through her simple, powerful and actionable strategies and tools.

"You cannot outwork your busyness using one-size-fits-all-time management solutions. The latest app, prioritization tip, or email management strategy will not work if it's not personalized for you, aligned with the way you think and process information. It's time to get personal about your productivity!" - Carson Tate

PROGRAM NEWS

Wall Street Exchange Program - Application Period Now Open

The Wall Street Exchange (WSE) is a career development program designed to augment and coincide with the summer internship experience of qualified rising college seniors working as summer interns in the New York metropolitan area. WSE is not an internship opportunity.

The program consists of a series of events hosted by top firms and companies for professional and personal development. We invite you to share this information with prospective qualified young male and female applicants.

Applications are due Friday, May 15, 2020. There is no cost to students to apply or participate.

CALL FOR NOMINEES (FWA MEMBERS ONLY)

Due to the virus pandemic, rather than cancelling the 2020 Wall Street Exchange Program we are excited to announce that it will be conducted by interactive virtual webinars and workshops.
