FWA VIRTUAL EVENTS

LIBOR – Going, Going, Gone 2022 and Beyond - FREE EVENT
The National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL) and the Financial Women’s Association (FWA) cordially invite you to a webinar panel for an informative discussion regarding the issues and challenges surrounding the transition away from LIBOR, including implementation mechanics such as early opt-in notices, the spread between LIBOR and Term SOFR, and the tension between borrowers and lenders. We will also discuss the mismatch that we are seeing in the bond, loan, and swap markets. The conversation will be rounded out with a global perspective and an update on SONIA.

Refresh Your Resilience

Are you tired of just reacting to change after change in this ever-shifting world?

When you have a stronger sense of who you are (identity), you have increased resilience because you have strong footing in what you stand for and what you're capable of.

In this workshop, as we redefine "Innovation" and "Leader", we open up the possibility that amazing women can adopt these powerful characteristics into their identity - and therefore be more resilient to what's coming in 2022!

This workshop will also help you to refresh your resilience by anchoring in who you are and who you are meant to be so you can re-start the New Year as your most mighty self. If you know you are meant for more (or even to lead), this workshop is for you!

Join us on Monday, December 6th and learn resiliency – the FWA way!

WHEN:
Monday, December 6, 2021 | 6:30 – 7:30 pm

FWA-NJ: Difficult Conversations: Child/Parent Role Reversal

Do you feel prepared to have the conversation about how your parents or older loved ones are doing?
Are they finding it more difficult to navigate stairs, keep up with bill paying and day to day finances, and maintain their home on their own? When the conversation starts does it get emotional, defensive?

This role reversal of child to parent is not easy. Families have all kinds of emotional triggers and history that can deeply complicate how to approach this inquiry and planning. What are the options? What steps can be taken to help this decision making process, and determine what will be in the best interest of your loved ones? If some of these concerns are on your mind come and learn what some of the possibilities and options are and how to approach having a difficult conversation. Our panel comprises practitioners that will explore the various dimensions of navigating this very emotional time with timely and relevant information.

Lunch will be provided. All participants are required to be fully vaccinated to provide the best protection for all.

Text-to-Give

Support our youth education programs and honor the 20th anniversary of the FWA/BMO Baruch Mentorship Program, providing scholarships and career guidance and promoting social mobility for 300+ graduates including 49 current mentees.

TEXT: 2021give to 646-760-6514

Help us fulfill our mission to promote the professional development and advancement of all women through education, mentorship, scholarships, networking, and alliances across the financial community.

Your donation provides opportunities for economically, culturally, and ethnically diverse high school and undergraduate college students:

- One-on-one mentoring
- Scholarships for college and study abroad
- College search, test preparation, and application support
- Resume writing and professional development workshops
- Cultural and recreational activities that support social development,
  ● and so much more...

Engage and spread the word by liking/sharing FWA's social media posts and using #GivingTuesday2021. By engaging our larger community, we can extend the reach of the FWA, market its many effective programs, and encourage others to join our worthy mission.
