Apartment Tour is an annual event showcasing apartment communities throughout the Nashville area.

Awards/Beautification is the Apartment Community Beautification, Flowers, Model, Clubhouse, Maintenance Shop and Diamond Award nominations and judging. Awards are presented at the annual Gala.

Communications The objective of GNAA Communications is to engage members and create an active, vibrant association through all types of media. This committee assists staff in creating the tools for engagement and strategies to use them.

Community Service offers the opportunity for our members to give back to the community through events and contributions for displaced residents, underprivileged children and homeless residents in our area.

Directory The GNAA Directory, including a Buyer's Guide, is published exclusively for the use of our members and is a tremendous resource for all of your multifamily industry needs.

Education GNAA strives to be the gold standard in continuing education for multifamily professionals. Programs include both specialized courses and structured curriculum designed to result in industry credentials of proficiency.

Gala is GNAA's annual celebration honoring our members for a variety of achievements throughout the year. This is our largest attended event and continues to grow each year.

Golf Come play and network at the same time during our annual Golf Tournament. Other festivities during the tournament, including contests like Best Dressed Team, make this a one of a kind outing!

Legislative brings important issues in the multifamily industry in Nashville to the attention of the GNAA Board of Directors for consideration in action.

Maintenance is our group of maintenance professionals that focus on the needs of their peers within the Nashville market. A big part of the yearly planning is Maintenance Mania, an annual competition put together by NAA with winners from all over the country.

Membership is the key to the strength of our organization. GNAA offers a unique blend of membership services that can include opportunities for career enhancement, volunteer leadership and community involvement.

NextGen This committee is open to those members in their 20s and 30s. NextGen is focused on professional networking, career development and community outreach.

News & Events News & Events magazine is the number one resource to learn about the issues and topics that affect GNAA members in their daily business. Our monthly publication is produced in full color, in print and online!

Programs The monthly General Membership meetings are one of the best ways to stay educated on industry trends and legal issues — providing a great networking opportunity for our members.

Statistics GNAA's Market Survey and quarterly reports are the most up-to-date market and trending information available. This is an incredible resource for industry professionals throughout the country.

Trade Show The GNAA Trade Show is held annually. Member companies gain exposure by showcasing their products and services in front of hundreds of multifamily industry professionals with purchasing power.
