Selection Criteria

Stanley O. Styles Industry Excellence Award

The criteria for the selection of award winners each year is as follows:

1. The recipient of the award shall be a paper merchant, paper manufacturer or converter, consultant, or educator who has had a distinguished career in the paper, packaging or supplies distribution channel.
2. The winner will be someone who has had a positive influence on the paper, packaging, or supplies distribution channel. This may be from the introduction of new management methods, marketing concepts, or new products, which have become important in the industry.
3. The award recipient will be one who is acknowledged by the paper, packaging, or supplies distribution channel as a leader and a good representative of the values and traits necessary for the excellent conduct of business.
4. The winner will be one who has been long involved in industry affairs through actions, and has supported the industry's trade associations, foundations, and marketing groups of mills, converters, merchants, and others.
5. The award recipient will be someone who has been a spokesperson for the industry either locally and/or nationally, and whose opinion is respected.
6. The winner will be one who exhibits impeccable character and is regarded as a good citizen of the paper industry.

Nominations are accepted at the NPTA headquarters and should be addressed to the S.O.S. Award. Nominees remain on an active list and do not have to be re-nominated each year. The Stanley O. Styles Industry Excellence Award to be given each year is determined by the selection committee. As this is a prestigious award, there may be years when no awards are given.
