Orlando, Florida May 29, 2020 — SHRM (the Society for Human Resource Management) recently awarded The Greater Orlando Society of Human Resources Management (GOSHHRM) its prestigious EXCEL Bronze Award for the Chapter's accomplishments in 2019.

The EXCEL award is given to state councils and chapters to recognize major accomplishments, strategic activities, and tactical initiatives that elevate the profession of human resources.

“So much of SHRM's impact on the world of work can be traced back to the dedication and hard work of our chapters and state councils like the Greater Orlando Society of Human Resources Management (GOSHHRM). These leaders took the initiative and drove changes to make workplaces where employers and employees can thrive together,” said Johnny C. Taylor, Jr., SHRM-SCP, President and Chief Executive Officer of SHRM. “The Bronze EXCEL Award is not only a celebration of the great work done by GOSHHRM, it's also a recognition of the grit it took to do it.”

The EXCEL Award can be earned at four levels: bronze, silver, gold and platinum. Each level has a prescribed set of requirements and accomplishments that must be met. The Greater Orlando Society of Human Resources Management will receive recognition in SHRM publications and at conferences, a logo to display on its website, and information to share with its members about the significance of this award.

GOSHHRM's collaboration with Jobs Partnership of Florida (JP) in 2019 was one of many great accomplishments. Through the help of the Chapter's marketing resources and a financial gift, JP was able to move programs to an online format, and fund a larger program with a notable local university to produce instructor-led LifeWorks curriculum videos, eliminating the need to recruit in-person instructors at their 7 sites around Central Florida. GOSHHRM is privileged to have this partnership and looks forward to a continued relationship with JP to help in serving the unemployed, or underemployed in Central FL.
