

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Understanding the Elements of King IV (KUEK)

DAY/S: 2

CPD: 16

LEVEL: 2,3,4

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The King IV Code sets out the philosophy, principles, practices, sectorial supplements and outcomes which serve as the benchmark for corporate governance in South Africa.

Class Exercise

King IV Applicable Entities

COURSE CONTENT

- What is King IV
- How is King IV different from King III
- Objectives of King IV
- Underpinning Philosophies of King IV
- The 17 Principles of King IV
- Recommended Practices – how to Implement the 17 Principles
- Sector Supplements – Introduction
 - Supplements for Municipalities
 - Supplements for Non-Profit Organisations
 - Supplements for Retirement Funds
 - Supplements for SME's
 - Supplements for State Owned Enterprises
 - Implications for Non-Compliance

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Level 2

Internal auditors who are already practicing internal audit and have a basic understanding of the subject.

Level 3

Supervisory/competent/senior internal auditors: those who already have a sound, practical grasp of the fundamentals of internal auditing and manage staff.

Level 4

For advanced internal auditors: Auditors with excellent understanding of topics being presented, who are interested in exchanging knowledge with instructors and other participants.

COURSE OUTCOMES

- Understanding the Key principles of King IV and their recommended practices
- Going through the difference between King III and King IV
- Outlining the new King IV Sector Supplements that ensure a holistic application of the King Code for all types of businesses and operations

Please click here for CPD General Course Outlines. Delegates are also requested to review the content and the levels of the courses presented before booking, to ensure they are attending the right course.

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

for Guardians of Governance