Re: Endorsement of Magistrate Judge Adrienne Noti for Associate Judge, Superior Court of the District of Columbia

Dear Ms. Garcia:

The Hispanic Bar Association of the District of Columbia (HBA-DC) is pleased to endorse the Honorable Magistrate Judge Adrienne Noti for an Associate Judge position on the Superior Court of the District of Columbia (Superior Court). Magistrate Judge Noti's service as a Magistrate Judge has been exemplary. Based upon her demonstrated commitment to public service, her personal qualities, and her professional qualifications, we trust that she would be a valued addition to the Superior Court's roster of Associate Judges.

The HBA-DC undertakes a careful review of individuals who seek its endorsement in order to make certain that individuals with impeccable credentials, as well as proper temperament and character, are supported for the trusted positions they seek. We ensure that endorsees meet the letter and spirit of our Endorsement Policy, which includes such criteria as established professional qualifications, a demonstrated commitment to the District of Columbia community in general, as well as the rights and advancements of minority communities.

Magistrate Judge Noti possesses the requisite professional experience to serve as an Associate Judge, as demonstrated by her past experience and commitment to advocating for underserved communities, families, women, and children. Following her federal law clerkship, Magistrate Judge Noti worked as a staff attorney for direct services organizations, such as the Safe Horizon Domestic Violence Law Project, representing low-income domestic violence victims, and she conducted community outreach. She then spent seven years as a clinical law professor supervising law students in the representation of domestic violence victims, in child custody, child support, divorce and other family law cases, and on immigration matters (including Spanish-speaking clients seeking U and T visas). As a clinic supervisor, she taught students best practices for representing clients with limited English proficiency and working with interpreters. As a Managing Attorney for the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Program, she coordinated the Advocacy and Justice Clinic, placing low-income clients with volunteers and providing substantive family law guidance to volunteer attorneys. Later, she joined the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Child Support Enforcement, where she served in policymaking roles regarding federal child support and other family-related legal issues.

Magistrate Judge Noti's excellent service on the Superior Court has prepared her to serve as an Associate Judge, as demonstrated by her high-volume caseload and her efforts to improve the administration of justice. Magistrate Judge Noti has presided over the Domestic Violence Unit and the Criminal Division, handling a wide range of decision-making from initial hearings or arraignments through trial and probation. As a judicial officer, she has advanced division-wide improvements. For the Domestic Violence Unit, with the support of Presiding Judges, she implemented several improvements to the arraignment court process, and streamlined resources by encouraging all cases involving the same defendant to be heard in one courtroom. Moreover, Magistrate Judge Noti coordinated with the Domestic Violence section leaders of the United States Attorney's office to enhance understanding of the legal implications of crime victims' rights legislation. She also enhanced the procedures for handling release conditions and stay-away orders where defendants charged with misdemeanor cruelty to children also have companion abuse and neglect cases, or are otherwise involved with Child and Family Services. Magistrate Judge Noti also has taken number of court, and division-wide, trainings on domestic violence matters, including the preparation of reference materials and bench books.

As a judicial officer, Magistrate Judge Noti has continued her work to promote access to justice, as demonstrated by her commitment to limited English proficient (LEP) communities, including the Latino community in the District of Columbia. As a judicial officer, she has spearheaded the use of Spanish Criminal Stay-Away Orders in her courtroom, assisted in facilitating enhanced legal services to LEP litigants court-wide, and served on the Committee on Court Interpreters. Magistrate Judge Noti's dedication to improving access to justice reflects the standards HBA-DC seeks in candidates for judicial office. Magistrate Judge Noti also has mentored law students and new lawyers with a focus on the advancement of diversity in the legal profession in both her previous roles in academia and as a judicial officer.

In sum, the HBA-DC is pleased to endorse Magistrate Judge Noti for an Associate Judge position on the Superior Court. Magistrate Judge Noti is a well-regarded judicial officer, a tireless advocate for the improvement of the administration of and access to justice, and possesses the requisite professional experience and personal qualities to serve as an Associate Judge.

Respectfully Yours,

Richard V. Rodriguez
