

Are you eager to hone your skills in the self-funding world?
Do you yearn to grow in this competitive, evolving market?
Are you ready to partner with the brightest stars of tomorrow?

YOU MAY BE AN EMERGING LEADER!

The Emerging Leader Program (ELP) from the Health Care Administrators Association (HCAA) is designed to benefit some of the most energetic and passionate members of our industry, providing them with unmatched educational and mentoring opportunities.

Breaking in to a market as demanding as the self-funding sector can be difficult, but HCAA's Emerging Leaders program provides countless opportunities to:

- Gain new insights
- Learn best practices
- Network with peers
- Access industry leaders
- Give back through volunteerism
- Be mentored by association executives
- Step up to the plate and become a leader

The Benefits

Emerging leaders will have access to special introductory conference rates and ELP conference break-out sessions, exclusive Certified Self Funding Specialist® discounts, dynamic educational resources, executive-level mentoring, top referral contacts, networking opportunities, and much, much more!

To qualify for the Emerging Leaders Program, HCAA asks that you have a dynamic attitude, five years or less experience in the self-funding industry, and work for either an affiliate organization or a third-party administrator.
