

THE SUMMONS

NOVEMBER 2018 EDITION

Monthly newsletter of the Hidalgo County Bar Association

Celebrating Our

Our President's Message

Dear HCBA Members,

November is National Adoption Month and I'm happy to say that the HCBF and Women's Bar Section's "Heart Gallery of Hidalgo County" Grand Opening, featuring over 20 children ready to be adopted, was a wonderful success. The Heart Gallery kicked off at BBVA Compass where over a hundred guests joined us for Hors d'oeuvres, wine and listened to some heartwarming stories from adoptive families. The Women's Bar Section did an amazing job of soliciting "Changing the World of Children" sponsors to help defray the adoption costs for several families. Thank you to the members of our Women's Bar Section, Ms. Veronica Gonzalez, and our sponsors!

This month we also held our annual Give and Win contest that brought in 500 bags of groceries and money to purchase 50 gift cards that were handed out to some very happy families who joined us at LUPE in San Juan. Congratulations to Roerig, Oliveira, & Fisher, LLP and Palacios, Garza & Thompson, P.C., winners of the Give and Win contest helping to collect close to 250 bags. Many of our board members had the opportunity to personally pass out the bags of food and were greeted by some very wonderful and grateful people. Your generosity is greatly appreciated by the Hidalgo County Bar Foundation and the families in need.

I must admit that our events like the Heart Gallery of Hidalgo County and our Fiesta de Gracias are probably one of the best parts of serving as your HCBA/HCBF President. Together we can accomplish so much good of giving back to the people in the communities we serve. Please continue supporting HCBA and HCBF by keeping your HCBA membership current.

Mark your calendars: we have some great events coming up that you will not want to miss:

- The Black Robe Reception at Plains Capital Bank on Thursday, December 13, 2018
- Bill of Rights: HCBA Criminal Law Conference at Cimarron Country Club on Friday, January 25, 2019 from 8 am to 5 pm.
- Hockema Civil Law Section Conference at Renaissance Casa de Palmas in McAllen on Thursday, April 11, 2019
- Board Elections in May 2019

Thank you for your support and please help us keep our Association growing and thriving.

Sincerely,
Luis Cardenas, President

NATIONAL PRO BONO WEEK CELEBRATED OCTOBER 21-27, 2018

The American Bar Association's National Pro Bono Week is an opportunity to celebrate the difference lawyers make in communities. The Hidalgo County Bar Association, in partnership with Texas RioGrande Legal Aid (TRLA), coordinated their pro bono activities for the week by planning and scheduling a collaborate effort. That effort is called the Community Justice Program (CJP) which holds bi-monthly clinics and held one on Tuesday, October 23, 2018, during this year's National Pro Bono Week.

The CJP was a great success with several cases placed that night along with several others finalized by pro bono attorneys. This is a result of applying the lessons learned from the partnership including:

1. Effective recruitment of volunteer attorneys;
2. Assembling community support for pro bono and thereby increase legal services to the poor;
3. Developing lasting, collaborative relationships; and
4. Recognizing the pro bono efforts of Hidalgo County lawyers.

Taking from the lessons learned, we would like to acknowledge the following attorney volunteers who joined us during National Pro Bono Week: Mikson Ehimika, Dulce Hernandez, Natasha Martinez, Eddie Rendon and Ricardo Gonzalez. We also want to thank the staff of the 275th Judicial Court and the Hidalgo County District Clerk's Office who volunteered their services to assist the attorneys at the CJP.

We would also like to take this time to acknowledge a long-time supporter of pro bono efforts in Hidalgo County, Judge Juan Partida of the 275th Judicial District Court. Long before there was a National Pro Bono Week celebration or even a CJP, Judge Partida has been someone who TRLA can always count on to support our pro bono efforts. For every CJP clinic he made sure to set aside his courtroom and jury room so both volunteers and clients could meet to discuss their cases. The CJP exists because of the efforts of many volunteers but especially because of Judge Partida's. As is his demeanor, he committed himself to pro bono work without much fanfare or publicity. So as he prepares to leave the bench this month, we take the time to offer a well-deserved "thank you" for all he has done for access to justice in Hidalgo County.

If you want to ensure the continued success of the CJP, and like Judge Partida make that a part of your professional legacy, we encourage you to participate. To sign up as a volunteer, please contact Martha Hernandez, Legal Clinic Coordinator, at (956) 393-6240 or by email at mhernandez@trla.org. You may also register at <http://bit.ly/TRLAVolunteer> and we will contact you.

THE WOMEN'S BAR SECTION & THE HIDALGO COUNTY BAR FOUNDATION

Proudly announce the opening of the 10th Annual

Heart Gallery of Hidalgo County

The purpose of the HEART GALLERY OF HIDALGO COUNTY is to promote awareness, understanding, and ADOPTION of children in the foster care program. The Heart Gallery accomplishes this by coordinating a traveling photographic exhibit designed to increase the number of adoptive families for children needing homes in our South Texas community. This year, the Heart Gallery exhibit will include twenty portraits of children and/or sibling groups currently available for adoption in the South Texas area.

YOUR DONATION TO HCBF SUPPORTS THE FOLLOWING PROGRAMS!

- Celebrate Freedom Courthouse Tours and Classroom Speaker Bureau is an educational program held in November of each year. Communities across Texas celebrate our system of justice through educational activities aimed at emphasizing the third branch of government and its important role in ensuring democracy and equality. During Celebrate Freedom week volunteer lawyers and judges, in conjunction with the Hidalgo County Bar Association, the HCBF, and the State Bar of Texas, educate the public and students about the justice system and the crucial role of Lawyers, Judges and Juries. Also discussed is the significance of the judicial branch of government and its impact on the daily life of every Texan.
- Community Justice Program (CJP) has a mission to provide equal access to justice impoverished residents of the Rio Grande Valley by matching those in need of legal assistance with volunteer attorneys who have agreed to represent them without charge. The CJP volunteer attorneys have assisted countless poor families with legal problems.
- Hidalgo County Bar Foundation Public Service Fund is a program offering grant opportunities to other non-profit, charitable, and educational organizations.
- Hidalgo County Bar Foundation Scholarship Endowment Fund offers scholarship opportunities to the Hidalgo County college seniors who will be attending law school. The HCBF awards a $1,500 scholarship.
- Holiday Toy Drive HCBF donates funds for the purchase of toys for under-represented age groups. The organizations supported through our toy drive deliver hundreds of toys to area underprivileged children who otherwise might not get toys for Christmas. This year the HCBF benefited over 420 children living in Hidalgo County Colonias.
- Law Day is an educational program that is held in May of each year. The HCBF coordinates and orchestrates educational programs in Hidalgo County schools including photo, poster, and essay contests. The winning entry of each category is sent to the State Bar of Texas for competition with other entries from around the state. At the state competition level, the top three entries in each category are awarded cash awards.
- Mock Trial Competitions is an educational program conducted each year in partnership with the State Bar of Texas and Region One Education Service Center. High school students are challenged to develop good communication and critical thinking skills, to experience examination and cross-examination of clients, and to generate opening and closing statements. Opportunities for scholarship awards for winning teams exist at the regional, state and national competitions.
- "Fiesta de Gracias" Thanksgiving Food Drive supports local food banks and economically disadvantaged families by conducting law office and county office food drives and by making monetary donations. Last year the HCBF raised $8,000 and benefited over 900 families.
