JON DORENBOS

An extraordinary journey shaped by hardship, heart, and the magic of belief.

If ever there was a comeback kid story, Jon Dorenbos is one of them. Jon's story is one of resilience, transformation, and a relentless positive outlook on life. From a childhood marked by personal tragedy and time spent in foster care, Jon's journey has been anything but easy. Yet, against all odds, he overcame these challenges, finding strength in adversity.

Jon Dorenbos played 14 seasons in the NFL, a standout NFL long snapper for the Philadelphia Eagles. He notably made the Pro Bowl twice, as well as being the Ed Block Courage Award recipient and the Eagles' Walter Payton Man of the Year. He also holds the record for the most consecutive games played in Philadelphia Eagles franchise history. Jon earned recognition not only for his athletic ability but for his unique perspective on life.

Jon competed on Season 11 of "America's Got Talent" where he showcased his skills as a sleight-of-hand magician, making it to the finals and placing third overall amongst over 100,000 competitors. His performances captivated millions, blending magic, humor, and life lessons that speak to the power of resilience and perseverance.

He then put his talent on display as a guest on "The Ellen DeGeneres Show", who quickly became one of his biggest fans and advocates. Jon appeared on "The Ellen DeGeneres Show" more than any other guest in the history of the show. He also has been featured on "HBO Real Sports" more than any other guest in the history of that show as well. He retired from the NFL after he was diagnosed with a life-threatening heart condition requiring 15 hours of emergency open-heart surgery.

Jon has become involved in various charities, including Brian Moorman's "Punt Foundation," which helps children with terminal diseases, and Garth Brooks' "Teammates for Kids", the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Ronald McDonald House.

Known for his great sense of humor and positive outlook on life, Jon uses his skills as a magician and his incredible life story to inspire audiences around the world. He wrote a book titled Life Is Magic that draws a roadmap for how to shut up that self-doubting voice by choosing to find happiness in every situation. Producer Mike Tollin has optioned the book and is making it into a feature film. The screen play is being written by John Gatins, who was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Original Screenplay for the drama film Flight with Denzel Washington.
