

EMERGING TECH IN HEALTH

22
May
2018

Sudima, Christchurch Airport
Sessions 9am to 5pm
Networking 5pm to 6.30pm

9.00-9.30am Registration (tea & coffee on arrival)

9.30-9.40am Opening & Introduction to the Symposium

Kim Mundell CEO, HiNZ

Master of Ceremony (MC) Scott Arrol CEO, NZHIT

9.40-10.00am Official Welcome

Mayor Winton Dalley Hurunui District Council & Canterbury Mayoral Forum

David Meates CEO, Canterbury & West Coast District Health Boards

SESSION ONE :: DELIVERING HEALTHCARE 10-YEARS FROM NOW – WILL IT BE MUCH DIFFERENT?

10.00-10.20am Keynote Speaker sponsored by Indici

John Macaskill-Smith CEO, Pinnacle Ventures

2027 – the experience that isn't so far off

10.20-10.40am Morning tea

10.40-11.40am Panel Speakers

Dr Saxon Connor HPB Surgeon & e-Clinical Health Lead, Canterbury DHB

It's healthcare Jim, but not as we know it

Rebecca George Clinical Lead for Informatics, Allied Health, Christchurch Campus, Canterbury DHB

Human Touch vs Plastic Polymer

Dr John Ko General Practitioner, Director Wigram Health & Managing Director Epione Healthtech

The patient in the centre of the digital world

Stella Ward Executive Director Allied Health, Executive Lead – Innovation & ICT, Canterbury & West Coast District Health Boards

Interoperability, that's easy for you to say

Panel Discussion

Q&A with keynote & panel speakers

SESSION TWO :: SOCIAL LICENSE – WILL IT REALLY MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

11.40am-12pm Keynote Speaker

Ann-Marie Cavanagh Chief Technology & Digital Services Officer, Ministry of Health

Social license for Artificial Intelligence – what would this look like?

12.00-12.40pm Panel Speakers

Sam Johnson Head of Community Innovation, Mycare

Future of Community Based Care – Technology is used to connect us together and also drive us apart – but what else?

Kathryn Jones CEO, Laura Fergusson Trust

Let's stop pretending 'social license' is an actual thing

Dr Kevin Ross General Manager, Precision Driven Health

Social license for health data science – an accelerator or brake?

Panel Discussion

Q&A with keynote & panel speakers

12.40-1.20pm Lunch and Networking

SESSION THREE :: KEEPING PACE WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD – ARE WE FALLING BEHIND?

1.20-1.45pm Keynote Speaker
David Gardiner Care Transformation Chief Operating Officer, Intermountain Healthcare, Utah, USA
Keeping pace with the rest of the world – are we falling behind?

1.45-2.45pm Panel Speakers
Jon Herries Group Manager, Emerging Health Technology, Ministry of Health
How genomics could personalise treatment
Robyn Whittaker Associate Professor & Clinical Director Innovation, Waitemata DHB and the National Institute for Health Innovation (University of Auckland)
mHealth Transforming Healthcare
Dr Bruce Davey CEO, ARANZ Medical
Wrenching woundcare out of the dark ages
Helmut Modlik CEO, Patients First
Leading edge event detection technology to prevent harm in primary care
Panel Discussion
Q&A with keynote & panel speakers

2.45-3.10pm Afternoon tea

SESSION FOUR :: VIRTUAL HEALTHCARE – DOES THIS MEAN ROBOTS WILL BE OUR DOCTORS?

3.10-3.35pm Keynote Speaker
Ben Reid Executive Director, Artificial Intelligence Forum of New Zealand
Artificial Intelligence in Health: Separating Reality from Science Fiction

3.35-4.30pm Panel Speakers
Kyle Forde CIO, WellSouth
Honey I Shrunk the Doctor
Dr Chris Rumball Specialist Pain Medicine Physician & Clinical Lead, Cortex
The robot doesn't understand my pain!
Gabe Rijpma Senior Director Health & Social Services Asia, Microsoft
The Doctor will see you now – medical data + AI = better triage and direction in the health system – a demo of virtual care in action
Panel Discussion
Q&A with keynote & panel speakers

4.30-4.50pm Richard Corbridge Chief Digital & Information Officer, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
(via video & live Q&A)
If only IT were free

4.50-5pm MC Summary & Event Close

5-6.30pm Networking Event
Includes a presentation from
David Meates CEO of Canterbury & West Coast District Health Boards
