

GAME MASTER AWARDS – HISTORICON 2011

From the HMGS Academy of Historical Gaming

The Historical Miniatures Gaming Society congratulates the Game Masters (GM) awardees selected by their peer GM's for HISTORICON 2011. The HMGS Game Master Awards program is intended to recognize GMs for convention events which encourage others and exemplify the highest qualities of the Historical Miniatures Gaming hobby.

Thanks to ALL of our dedicated GMs for their personal contribution and selfless efforts at HISTORICON 2011.

1. Best of Show: “How the West Was Lost Book II” game series by GMs Bill Moreno, Rob Hall and the South Florida Miniatures Gamers.

2. Best “Brother against Brother – American Civil War, 1861-65” Theme Event: “Battle of Gettysburg, 1-3 July 1863” by GM Bob Moon and the Jacksonville Garrison.

3. ‘Pour Encourager Les Autres’ (PELA) Awards: Selected from all historical miniatures events throughout the Convention.

- “All Along the Braddock Road” by GM Cliff Brunken
- “Battle of Perryville, 8 Oct 1861” by GM Paul Olszanski
- “Downpours and Diplomacy: Znaim, 11 July 1809” by GMs Peter Anderson and Barry Frandsen
- “The Train: Sudan, 1885” by GMs Mark Stevens, Jay Stribling, and the Jackson Gamers (25mm Colonial)
- “Indiana Jones and the Tomb of Death” by GMs Del Stover, Ben Fornshell and the Wednesday Night Gamers of Alexandria
- “A Pretty Severe Peppering! – New Brunswick, NJ – 22 June 1777” by GMs Jamie & Marvin Veeder, and the Ft. Orange Wargame Club
- “Battle of Olustee, 20 Feb 1864” by GMs Chris Bergonzi, Richard Claydon and the Boston Trained Bands
- “The Night the War was Lost: Plaquemine Bend, 24 Apr 1862” by GMs Patrick Hreachmack, Norm Lunde, and Dave Brandon
- “Pirate Raid on the Spanish Main” by Rick Stakes and N.O.W.S.

4. GM Award Judging Teams: Are veteran GM's led by previous award winners, all of whom devote their personal convention time as volunteers.

We apologize for any inaccurate data or oversights and strongly encourage all GMs to volunteer and support the program.

Club groups and award winners are especially welcome as judging teams. To sign-up to help with our next convention, please email the Awards Committee Chair at: awards@hmgs.org

5. GM Evaluation Criteria: Is posted in the Files Section of the GM Support Network, at the following link: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/GMSN>