Job Description: Advocacy and Research Specialist

I. Organization Description

Habitat for Humanity of Colorado (HFHC) 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation and an Affiliate Support Organization affiliated with Habitat for Humanity International. Its purpose is to build the capacity of Habitat affiliates by increasing access to resources, facilitating communication between affiliates and the community, and providing statewide leadership toward the creation of thriving communities that support healthy families. HFHC provides four primary areas of service: collaborative funding and finance, training and technical assistance, state-level advocacy, and disaster recovery coordination. HFHC is a small organization focused on adding value to the Habitat mission through innovation and service. Our culture is casual, collaborative, creative, and highly team-oriented. Team members share ownership of and responsibility for all aspects of the organization’s work including fundraising, public relations, advocacy, and administration.

II. Job Summary

The Advocacy and Research Specialist promotes Habitat for Humanity of Colorado’s affordable homeownership advocacy platform at the state level. Responsibilities include identifying priorities, advocating for or against state legislative proposals, participating in coalition and task force meetings and research related to policies and affordable housing. The position will also support affiliates in their local advocacy efforts through training and technical assistance, policy review and coalition building. This position will build and capitalize on strong relationships and communications with state legislators, affordable housing organizations and statewide partners.

As with all HFHC positions, this role supports HFHC’s efforts in maintaining positive relationships with Habitat for Humanity affiliates, funders, and other stakeholders by reflecting the culture of service that is emblematic of HFHC. The Advocacy and Research Specialist reports directly to the Executive Director. This is an exempt, salaried, full-time position, requiring 40 hours/week.

III. Position Responsibilities (include but are not limited to):

Conduct Research and Analysis

- Cultivate a deep understanding of affordable housing, including staying current on new and relevant evidence, best practices, literature, and policy documents
Conduct research, including literature reviews, utilizing a range of academic, public, and government sources

Lead HFHC’s exploration of naturally occurring intersections between housing and other sectors, such as health, education, transportation and workforce development, to maximize impact and resources. Identify opportunities to share this part of our impact story as a tool in expanding partnerships.

Conduct basic analyses of qualitative and quantitative data

Summarize and share research findings with colleagues

Educate key stakeholders about affordable homeownership issues and solutions

Prepare white papers, fact sheets, presentations, reports, and other materials that educate stakeholders about affordable housing/homeownership

Assist in the development of advocacy-related educational content for HFHC monthly newsletter, website, and social media outlets

Help Habitat affiliate staff and volunteers understand and contribute effectively to political solutions to the affordable housing crisis through routine communication and trainings

In cooperation with Learning and Evaluation Officer, develop and present public policy-focused webinars and education opportunities for affiliates

Assist affiliates with information requests, state public policy questions, etc. in coordination with Executive Director and Lobbyist

Public Policy Development and Advocacy

Advise the Executive Director and Advocacy Committee on developing and executing HFHC’s public policy agenda

Gather essential data from Habitat for Humanity affiliates in Colorado to inform HFHC policy priorities and advocacy efforts

Formulate strategies for advancing affordable housing/home ownership and make recommendations for developing, modifying and/or implementing new or existing legislative advocacy priorities

Analyze the impacts of proposed public policy and legislative and regulatory policy on Habitat for Humanity organizations in Colorado

Solicit feedback and ideas from Advocacy Committee and Colorado Habitat affiliates on policy and advocacy issues

Prepare public statements and content for external and internal public policy purposes in coordination with Executive Director and Development and Communications Manager

Assist with devising talking points, legislative testimony, rulemaking comments and legislative or policy strategies

In coordination with Executive Director and Development and Communications Manager, develop and implement robust and multi-faceted public mobilization strategy related to policy priorities
Engage in community outreach and build strong coalition partnerships at the state level to advance HFHC’s policy priorities; serve on external advocacy committees and coalitions to represent affordable homeownership interests

Plan and Manage Advocacy Programs
- Manage HFHC education and advocacy programs and events such as the annual Legislative Day at the Capitol and Legislative Build Week
- Prepare, train, and provide talking points for Habitat representatives participating in advocacy programs
- Act as liaison with Habitat for Humanity International’s Government Relations and Advocacy (GRA) Office
- Plan and manage HFHC’s engagement in nationwide advocacy campaigns and nationwide events such as Habitat on the Hill
- Complete required reporting to Habitat for Humanity International on HFHC advocacy efforts

Other Responsibilities
- Collaborate with Development and Communications Manager to identify and apply for grant opportunities from government partners, private foundations and HFHI
- Assist in planning and facilitation of Advocacy Committee meetings

Responsibilities shared by HFHC Staff
- Work closely with the Executive Director to plan, coordinate, and execute the annual budget
- Regularly provide progress reports to Executive Director
