

President, HR Florida Council

The President is the chief elected officer of the Council. He/She is responsible for establishing policy, strategies, goals, and objectives consistent with those of SHRM. The incumbent provides guidance to elected and volunteer members who are responsible for accomplishing Council and SHRM objectives and is accountable for ensuring all Council activities, goals and objectives are reached.