

Timothy Fitzsimons, M.D.

Senior Partner

Timothy Fitzsimons is a Senior Partner for Korn Ferry Leadership and Talent Consulting, based in the firm's Boston office.

As an M.D. with more than 30 years experience in strategy execution, leadership development and management, Dr. Fitzsimons helps leaders optimize their impact and gain the required organizational alignment to realize full and sustainable business value.

Dr. Fitzsimons has designed and led custom leadership development initiatives, facilitated senior team effectiveness outcomes, and provided strategy execution advisory services to a wide range of organizations, including multi-national Fortune 500 corporations and across the healthcare industry (hospital providers, pharmaceutical and insurance companies, CROs, etc.). He has also developed and delivered work in financial services, telecommunications, publishing, and the consumer industry.

One International Place,
10th Floor,
Boston, MA 02110
Cell: 781-999-5848
timothy.fitzsimons@kornferry.com

Prior to joining Korn Ferry, Dr. Fitzsimons was a partner in the leadership and organizational performance practice of a global strategy consulting firm. Before that he was a partner in a strategy execution consulting firm where he helped leaders successfully deliver on the ROI of transformational change.

Dr. Fitzsimons also spent 17 years in the pharmaceutical industry where he had a variety of leadership roles including Medical Director in Europe, and corporate therapeutic category leadership in R&D and global strategic marketing;.

Dr. Fitzsimons graduated in medicine from Bristol University (UK). He practiced internal medicine and cardiology in London teaching hospitals, and earned his post-graduate Membership of the Royal College of Physicians.