About The International Association of Blacks in Dance

OUR STORY

ORIGINALLY FOUNDED IN 1988 as an international conference for Black Dance Companies, The International Association of Blacks in Dance (IABD) now stands as the preeminent global institution committed to the support and presentation of the Black Dance Community. Over its three decades of existence, IABD has come to represent communities of administrators, artists, dance companies and directors, educators, scholars, students and teachers all of whom make up the global diversity of Black Dance.

WHAT WE AIM TO DO

IABD preserves and promotes dance by people of African ancestry or origin, and assists and increases opportunities for artists in advocacy, audience development, education, funding, networking, performance, philosophical dialogue, and touring.
Dance Thrives Here and will continue to do so because of you.
What Sets Us Apart

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BLACKS IN DANCE (IABD)

has become the Mecca for Blacks in Dance. The Association provides a network, formal newsletters, choreographers directory, published papers and is the raison d’être for the annual conference and festival. The Association also responds to and initiates dialogue around issues that impact the Black Dance Community as well as the Dance community at large. IABD has developed national prominence and allowed the Black Dance Community to come together on issues important to them.

We Are One-Of-A-Kind
Looking to expand your network? IABD is the go-to resource for all things Black Dance. Between our membership, programs, and digital and social platforms, IABD reaches an international audience of 59,000*, consisting of Black Dance professionals, agents, administrators, artists, choreographers, dance companies, directors, educators, scholars, students, teachers, and those interested in artistry, Black dance issues, and performance presentations, and many others.
