Part B (Nomination Qualifications/Procedures)

The following factors among others shall be considered by the Executive Committee and International Board of Directors as qualifications for Lifetime International Honorary Membership:

1. Outstanding contribution to electrical safety on a national basis.
2. Outstanding contribution to IAEI on a national or international basis.

Nominations may be made by Sections, Chapters, Divisions, or by an international board member, using the Award Nomination Form and Award Prerequisites information provided in IAEI Membership Policy Appendix B.

Nomination Procedure

Before nominations for International Lifetime Honorary Membership will be considered the following steps must be taken:

1. Nominator must prepare a resume of accomplishments, which the nominator believes will qualify the candidate for International Lifetime Honorary Membership.
2. Nomination must be presented to and approved by the Board of Section, Chapter, or Division with whom the proposed individual is, or was, affiliated.
3. Following the approved honorary membership, the Secretary of the Section, Chapter, or Division must complete and submit the honorary membership form to IAEI international office. Honorary membership form can be found in the Membership Policy Appendix B.
