

About IAP2 Federation

Founded in 1990 by a group of dedicated P2 practitioners, the International Association for Public Participation has grown into an international federation of over 3200 professionals in 26 countries working to advance the practice of public participation (P2). National affiliates and their members benefit from research, training and networking opportunities with IAP2 Federation peers.

IAP2 Federation International Associates

The International Associates program offers a variety of benefits to enhance your career in the field of public participation

Program Benefits

1 Professional Development Opportunities

IAP2 offers many opportunities throughout the year to enhance your P2 skills. Join us at annual conferences in Australasia and North America, education symposiums, special topic webinars, and at IAP2 training courses, including the Foundations in Public Participation and Emotion, Outrage and Public Participation programs. Your membership in the IAP2 International Associates program offers registration at IAP2 Member pricing where available.

2 International Connections Connect with an international network of P2 practitioners via the online member directory and discussion forums.

3 Advancement of the P2 Practice Stay up to date on best practices, research and trends around the world with the quarterly IAP2 Federation international newsletter and submit articles to share with the network.

4 Core Values Awards IAP2 International Associates are eligible to submit entries for the annual IAP2 Core Values Awards program. Core Values Award Recipients are selected in three categories: Project of the Year, Organisation of the Year, and Research Award, and are recognized in the annual Showcase of Winners.

5 Career Development Learn about job openings in the field of P2 in the IAP2 online Career Center; post openings for your organisation and register to receive an email alert when new positions are posted.

6 International Journal of Public Participation IAP2 works in partnership with the Journal of Public Deliberation—a biannual peer review, open access journal—to facilitate information exchange and thoughtful exploration of public participation practices and impact.

IAP2 International Associates work in industry, civil society organisations, universities, government and more. They support clients, colleagues and citizens for improved decision-making and promote best practice through the three IAP2 Pillars: Spectrum of Public Participation, Core Values and Code of Ethics.
