ANNUAL REPORT

International Association for Public Participation

IAP2 Mission

The International Association for Public Participation, working through its members, helps organizations and communities around the world improve their decisions by involving people who are affected by those decisions.

IAP2 Strategies

IAP2 carries out this mission by organizing and conducting activities to:

- Encourage and enhance the professional development of people working in the public participation field
- Educate decision-makers about the value of public participation
- Help the public play an effective role in public participation processes
- Continue to define, review and enhance best practices in the field of public participation

The association has 16 chapters and 1 affiliate around the globe and approximately 1,100 members from 26 countries.

Benefits of Being a Member

IAP2 is made up of a diverse and growing group of people who design, implement, use and participate in public participation processes. Our members represent a broad spectrum of fields and specialties, and members live and work around the world.

When you get involved with IAP2, you reap the rewards

- Annual International Conference and local conferences
- IAP2 high quality, practical training programs including the Certificate in Public Participation
- Chapters – local networking, workshops and information
- Participation Quarterly – quarterly newsletter that features articles on public participation projects, case studies, interviews and features about innovations in the field
- eNews – monthly updates including job postings, chapter news, industry events
- On-line publications
- Web site – including on-line Bulletin Board
- Member's only section of Web site – on-line publications, conference proceedings, Public Participation Tool Box
- Membership directory – Networking and Information about other members

How to Get Involved

IAP2 delivers service to our members and others in several program areas. As a member-based organization, meeting your—our members'—needs is our fundamental goal. To do that, we aim to continue to improve our efforts of regularly seeking your thoughts and ideas and using that feedback as we develop programs to further the practice of public participation.

Have you thought about the opportunity to share and improve your leadership skills and contribute to the development of IAP2? Whether through your local chapter or on an international task force or committee, we have a place for your passion, skills and voice. Make this your organization by getting involved in setting and carrying out our mission.
