

ANNOUNCING A VERY SPECIAL AWARD OF EXCELLENCE, IN HONOUR OF A VERY SPECIAL PERSON WHO HAS MADE A SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE IN THE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF INSURANCE BROKERS.

Dale Rempel was a remarkable person. A successful insurance broker and principal of his own companies, he enthusiastically gave of his time and expertise to his community and his profession.

Along with many years served as an active volunteer on committees and on boards, both in his home province of Manitoba and for IBAC, he was a passionate believer in our professional development, and left an impressive legacy of ideas, ideals and initiatives designed to enhance the ongoing professionalism and success of insurance brokers across the country.

It is for Dale's commitment to the advancement and promotion of broker professional education that this award, to be presented each year to an individual who has made a significant difference in the advancement of professional development, has been named in his memory.

Dale's family will receive the very first award in honour of their beloved husband and father.

Nominations

IBAC and its 11 members are now invited to nominate candidates for the 2014 award.

Nominations must be received at IBAC by June 30th. The official form is provided, and includes all required candidate information. The recipient will be selected by the Professional Development Award Committee, representing the IBAC Board of Governors, practising brokers and the insurance industry press.

Nominators and the individual selected to receive the award will be notified by July 30th. The recipient will be invited to attend the IBAC Annual President's Banquet in September, where they will be presented with the award.
