IBPA members donate over $1,700 to support accessibility and literacy

Welcome to the Winter 2023-2024 IBPA Bookstore Catalog! Once again, we’re partnering with Benetech, a non-profit whose mission is to help make books and reading more accessible to all readers, particularly those with print disabilities. By placing their titles in this issue of our catalog, participating members of The Independent Book Publishers Association (IBPA) have donated $1,700 to Benetech.

We’re also celebrating the success of our second annual #FallIntoIndieBooks campaign, which promoted indie books at indie bookstores on Instagram throughout the month of September. Thirty winners were selected to win $50 to spend at independent bookstores like yours, and you can see some of their great posts featured on the back cover of this catalog (and, of course, online.)

IBPA members include independent publishers from traditional trade and hybrid publishers, author publishers, as well as university presses, nonprofits, and associations. We invite you to explore their titles featured in these pages. With 140 fiction and nonfiction, children’s, tween, teen, and adult titles, there’s something for every reader—including, we hope, your customers!

With respect and appreciation for all you do,

FEATURED TEEN FICTION BY LEE WIND FROM DUET/INTERLUDE/CHICAGO REVIEW PRESS

A globe-trotting, high-stakes adventure with the heroic courage of the James Bond movies and the ongoing romance (and queer group of friends) of Heartstopper. Publishes March 5, 2024.

Nicolas “Nico” Hall is sixteen when he escapes from Dr. H’s religious gay reprogramming institute in California. On his own, he assumes one identity after another to avoid recapture as he flies south to Peru and then to Mexico.

Seven days older than Nico, Samuel “Sam” Jonas Solomon is a privileged Upper West Side only child who idolizes James Bond. When his heart is broken, he vows that, like Bond, he’s never going to trust in love again. Then he meets Nico, and his heart won’t listen to any logic. Nico’s survived by living only for himself—until his love for Sam has him risking his freedom for others. And as much as Sam wants to be like 007, he discovers that James Bond is a terrible role model. Together, Nico and Sam set out to free the other teens trapped in Dr. H’s Institute, plunging readers into perils, drama, and a long-shot chance at love. To succeed, they’ll both have to be A Different Kind of Brave.
