Summary
A harrowing, captivating firsthand history of the rise of the radical environmental movement the Earth Liberation Front (ELF). Since 1997, the ELF has inflicted over $100 million in damages on entities they believe to be causing environmental destruction, mostly through brazen arson attacks on timber companies, ski resorts, and car dealerships.

Former ELF spokesperson Craig Rosebraugh charts the history and ideology of the ELF and explores its tactics, successes, and limitations. Rosebraugh examines the question of whether or not violence is justifiable, along with the short- and long-term political benefits and drawbacks of using violence. He also offers a primer on the tactics of state repression and strategies the US government uses to destroy activist movements.

Whatever your view of direct action or violence, Burning Rage of a Dying Planet is an illuminating read for anyone seeking to understand radical environmental movements and the government's response to them.

This revised and updated edition has a foreword by Extinction Rebellion co-founder Tamsin Omond.

Meaningful Ways to Market Your Books to Readers
Methods to Get Paid for Invoices
What do you need to distribute your books to stores?

Distribution remains one of the biggest mysteries and pain points for most publishers. WorkingLit, a cooperatively owned business management platform, helps publishers solve some of their biggest distribution hurdles by providing an intuitive end-to-end title management, inventory and accounting solution that handles functions from transmitting metadata, to receiving orders, to paying invoices and producing royalty statements. Let's take a look at what it takes to solve your own distribution:

- A staffed warehouse (could be your bedroom/a subcontracted facility/a trade distributor)
- Fulfillment/warehouse integration software (like WorkingLit.com)
- Send data about your books to all booksellers (ONIX feed) (like WorkingLit.com)
- Marketing presence at the regional shows for your books ($200-800 per show)
- Telesales and field reps (you can hire freelance groups; they keep 15% of each invoice)
- Edelweiss catalogs/listings ($250/month)
- Accounts with wholesalers like Ingram, Baker & Taylor, library jobbers, Bookazine, Amazon (check out the book A People’s Guide to Publishing)
