Happy New Year!

Our division vice chair and program planner, Nosh Contractor, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, reports that we had 36 papers and 5 panels submitted to our division for the 2002 conference in Korea. He submitted program copy to ICA in mid-December and will inform submitters about decisions as soon as he is notified that he can do so.

Caryn Medved, Ohio University, has done a nice job redesigning our website. The direct URL to our website is: http://www.spcomm.uiuc.edu:8000/ica/orgcomm/index.html. If you have organizational communication course syllabi, web site addresses, grant-getting resources, or other information that might be of interest to our members, please send them to Caryn at medved@ohio.edu. The incoming Book Review Editor for the Journal of Communication, Mary Beth Oliver, requests that division members who are interested in reviewing books contact her at mbo@psu.edu so that she can compile a list of potential reviewers. Mary Beth needs your full address including phone, fax, and e-mail, as well as your areas of interest and expertise.

Finally, W. Charles Redding Dissertation Award nominations need to be in to our division secretary, Steve May, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, by February 1, 2002. If you would like more information, see our website or contact Steve at skmay@email.unc.edu.

I hope that you have a fabulous 2002!
