Dear ICA Mass Comm-members,

We hope you had (or will soon have) a great start of the semester! This is the first newsletter of the year with several important updates.

The news of this month can all be found below:

(1) Introducing our new Student and Early-Career Representative:

(2) 73rd Annual ICA Conference Theme Call for Papers for Toronto 2023

(3) Renew your ICA membership before it is too late

(4) ICA elections: Cast your vote now.

(5) New job announcement

(6) Book release

(7) Call for Papers: Health & New Media Research

Please be reminded that if you have any news to share, you can always contact me! Don’t hesitate and don’t be shy, we are excited to know what you are working on, job postings, call-for-papers/chapters, book releases, awards/promotions, projects that are launched, and much more! If you have any news to be included in the October 2022 issue, please email me at m.boukes@uva.nl

That’s it!

Till the next one,
Mark Boukes.

(1) Introducing our new Student and Early-Career Representative

Name: Isabelle Freiling
Affiliation: University of Utah
Intro: “I hope to promote inclusiveness while advocating for student and early career members. With COVID-19 hitting student and early career members especially hard, the challenges in front of us are as urgent as ever and I am looking forward to supporting the student and early career perspective in our division and in ICA more broadly. Student and early career members, please reach out to me with any questions, wishes, or feedback you might have.”

(2) 73rd Annual ICA Conference Theme Call for Papers for Toronto 2023

Please be aware that the 73rd Annual ICA Conference Theme Call for Papers is already online, so you can start preparing your papers for the ICA Toronto conference:
https://www.icahdq.org/page/ICA23CFP . We hope to see many of you there! Paper submission for the conference already opened and will close on 1 November @ 12:00 (noon) ICA headquarters time (EDT). Highlight this deadline in your agendas!
For the upcoming conference, our Vice-Chair Dana Mastro is in charge of conference planning, including the pre/post conferences. So, any question about that can be directed to Dana.

(3) Renew your ICA membership before it is too late

Please note, the ICA membership term is from 1 October - 30 September each membership term. Stay a member of our Division and make sure to renew your membership before October! And of course, encourage your colleagues to also join our Division.

*******************************************************************************

(4) ICA elections (ICA Wide Ballot and separate divisions): Cast your vote now

And September is traditionally also the month of ICA elections: both an ICA Wide Ballot and for the separate divisions, specifically (including Mass Comm). All info and instructions can be found here: https://www.icahdq.org/page/Election2022

(7) Call for Papers: Health & New Media Research

Health & New Media Research (HNMR) invites the submission of original research manuscripts for publication in Volume 6, Issue 2. HNMR focuses on the role of communication and new media in public and environmental health to advance scholarly discoveries and real-world solutions. HNMR is an open-access, international, biannual peer-reviewed academic journal published in June and December by the Health & New Media Research Institute at Hallym University (South Korea).

The deadline for manuscript submissions is September 15, 2022. As an incentive for authors to contribute to this journal, there will be an award of US$500 for accepted papers. The submission should not have been published previously nor may any included material be drawn from previously published work. Submissions to HNMR must not be under consideration for publication in any form elsewhere.

For more information about the journal and submission, please visit our website: www.jhnmr.org. Inquiries should be sent to hnmr@hallym.ac.kr.
