2019 ICA Organizational Communication Division Post-Conference on External Funding

Post-Conference Title: Developing External Funding Opportunities for Organizational Communication Researchers

ICA 2019 - Washington DC, USA May 29, 2019 (Wed); 9am-4 pm

Offsite Location: The Omni Hotel at 2500 Calvert St NW, Washington, DC 20008. It is a 13-minute bus ride (passing by every 4 minutes) away from the Hilton conference hotel, or about a 5-minute car ride or 20-minute walk. See map below for direction.

This post-conference aims to (a) create greater awareness of external funding opportunities and (b) facilitate Organizational Communication Division members' development of research proposals. Keynote addresses will be given by Peter Monge (University of Southern California), Robert O'Connor (National Science Foundation), and Edward Palazzolo (U.S. Army Research Office). Several division members with notable external funding experiences will also make presentations and/or serve as coaches. The post-conference will inform members of the nuts and bolts of seeking external funding.

Confirmed coaches include (in alphabetical order of last names):

Josh Barbour (University of Texas at Austin)
Stacy Connaughton (Purdue University)
Marya Doerfel (Rutgers University)
Janet Fulk (University of Southern California)
Tyler Harrison (University of Miami)
Kerk Kee (Chapman University)
Vernon Miller (Michigan State University)
Scott Poole (University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign)
Michelle Shumate (Northwestern University)
Keri Stephens (University of Texas at Austin)
Matthew Weber (University of Minnesota)
Steve Wilson (University of South Florida)

Graduate students, post-docs, and faculty researchers of organizational communication interested in seeking external funding are encouraged to submit a proposal abstract (1 or 2-page single space) to this year's organizational communication division external funding post-conference. Inspired by the theme of the 2019 ICA Conference – Communication Beyond Boundaries – the Organizational Communication Division encourages members to submit their research on any topic, method, or approach. Participants who are able to register by April 15, 2019 (Monday) at 12 PM (noon, pacific standard time) and submit an abstract by April 26, 2019 (Friday) at 11:59 PM (pacific standard time) will receive feedback from mentors on their ideas for external funding. Registered participants without an abstract are welcome to attend the workshop as well.

Registration: $50 for faculty, and $30 for students (Participants must register for the post-conference through the ICA conference portal at the time of registration for the main conference). Please visit <https://www.icahdq.org/page/2019PrePostconf> for the link to register.
