

Keynote Speaker: Bojan Markovic is Deputy Director for Sector Economics and Policy in the Economics, Policy and Governance Department of VP Policy and Partnership at the EBRD. A member of the Steering Committee of the Vienna Initiative and leader of the NPL Initiative, he holds a Ph.D. and M.Sc. in Economics from the University of Birmingham and a B.Sc. from the Belgrade Faculty of Economics.

Mr. Markovic began his central banking career in 2000 at the Bank of England, working on monetary analysis and financial stability. He was in charge of the official model for forecasting UK inflation. In 2008, he moved to Goldman Sachs, where he was an executive director in private wealth management, focusing on investment strategies for exchange rates, short and long-run interest rates, and equities, mainly in G10 countries. From 2009 to September 2012 Mr. Markovic was the Vice Governor of the National Bank of Serbia, in charge of monetary policy, financial markets and payment systems. Until November 2013, he was visiting scholar at the IMF and external expert on several IMF missions. He is also an Honorary Senior Visiting Fellow at the University of Birmingham.

Jan Ambergen has held the position of Treasury Director, Global Credit & Working Capital at International Flavors & Fragrances (IFF) for over ten years. He is responsible for the global credit and collections of the organization and currently is leading a global Finance Transformation program, which includes a refresh of processes, systems and organization. 2019 will be the year IFF concentrates its financial processes in a new captive center in Budapest. IFF is one of the global leading companies in the flavor and fragrance industry and has a presence in all geographic regions.

Jan joined IFF in 1993 and has been performed various finance functions. Apart from the typical treasury responsibilities, he worked on a variety of international Finance projects. As Regional Controller EAME (2006-2009) he was responsible for the restructuring of the finance organization in EAME.

Jan received his Master's degree in Economics at the University of Groningen, with main specializations in Macroeconomics and Business Finance. He is based in the Netherlands.

Miguel Beneito currently serves as Global Credit Leader with Corteva Agriscience/DowDuPont. He is based in Geneva, Switzerland and leads a team covering credit for Latam, EMEA and Asia. He earned an MBA from Heriot Watt Business School of Edinburgh and is Economist by Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia UNED in Madrid. Miguel joined DuPont in Barcelona and has held a number of international positions in Accounting, Treasury, Trade Finance, Sales, Marketing and Business Management prior to leading Credit.

Richard Clark is the Director of Corporate Credit for Parker-Hannifin Corporation, based in Cleveland, Ohio. Parker is a $14 billion global revenue company and is a leading world-wide manufacturer of motion and controls technologies and systems. Prior to Parker, Richard served as the Director of Global Credit for the Industrial Technologies Sector of the Ingersoll-Rand Company.

Richard has thirty plus years of experience in credit and trade finance and has been actively engaged in global markets and risk management. He has been active with various trade associations, both international and domestic and has also served on the Board of Directors for two International Groups. He is currently the Chairman for ICTF. Richard has made numerous presentations on international credit and trade finance and has sat on many panels throughout his career.

He has traveled extensively, to over forty countries world-wide, and has managed teams that support domestic, export and international, in-country portfolio's.

Angus Farr is a Chartered Accountant and Chartered HR professional. As Director of Training Counts, he works with finance professionals and organisations to develop key business and management skills. The training he runs ranges from commercial awareness to performance management and from interview skills to business writing. Angus has worked in the UK and internationally and has even spoken at a couple of ICTF conferences in the past.

Madeleine Féquière, CCP, CICP is currently Director & Corporate Credit Chief at Domtar. With over 20 years of experience, Ms. Féquière is a specialist in risk management and operations associated with business credit, improving credit conditions and in global trade. She has worked on several continents in various sectors of the economy. She is recognized for her leadership and her ability to develop and manage complex international business strategies. She serves on the boards of public, governmental and non-profit organizations.

Ms. Féquière has received many awards in recognition of her achievements and has published various white papers in reputable credit risk & collections magazines. A leader in her field, she is also a respected lecturer.

Dariusz Lachowski is the Senior Manager Customer Finance of Amgen Europe B.V. in Breda, Netherlands, leading the EMEA Customer Finance Team within a Shared Services Center. He is guiding 45+ sales affiliates and over 65 geographical countries worldwide in the area of trade receivables and credit and collection management. He has been a member of ICTF since 2016. Prior to joining Amgen and the Pharma Industry he held various positions in sales and export departments in Healthcare and Automotive businesses.

Brian Morgan, Rimilia Business Development Director, has over 20 years' experience in managing credit departments including Debt Management, Risk Management and the full Order to Cash Process. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Credit Management (CICM), a Fellow of the Chartered Management Institute (CMI) and a Chartered Manager with CMI. Brian has won multiple awards and gained Centre of Excellence for his digital transformation of the finance function in large enterprises.

Shaun Purrington has helped, as a trusted partner, some of the largest and well-known companies extract exceptional value from the international credit insurance markets. An experienced credit management professional, he has held senior executive level positions with international credit insurance companies, brokers and credit management service providers. Shaun has been a member of ICTF since 2011 which has included a four year period on our Advisory Council.