

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Ronald Bruckmann, Attorney – Shumaker

Admitted to the North Carolina Bar in 2018, Ronald recently moved to Charlotte where he is an associate in Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP's Bankruptcy practice group.

Ronald's practice focuses on complex bankruptcy, restructuring, creditors' rights and commercial litigation matters. His background includes a wide variety of business litigation disputes in both state and federal courts, and he has extensive experience representing lenders, financial institutions, businesses, and other interested parties in Chapter 7, 11 and 13 bankruptcy cases throughout the country.

Prior to joining Shumaker, Ronald practiced for seven years in Miami, Florida, where he was an associate in the bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Practice of a large regional firm.

Stephan Casanova, OTC Director – Uber Technologies

Stephan has over three decades of international experience across EMEA and the Americas, with a career split between the Banking (Barclays, Natixis, GE Capital) and Technology (Microsoft, Uber) sectors. His expertise is focused on Risk Management, Cash Velocity, and Transformation, growing large, hybrid international Teams.

For the past five years, he has led the Order-to-Cash (OTC) Group at Uber, overseeing the entire process—from customer onboarding to cash application—across more than 80 geographies.

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

An alumnus of The Institute of Political Sciences, where he graduated as salutatorian, he also holds a Master's in Finance and a degree in History.

Richard Clark, Director, Corporate Credit – Parker Hannifin Corp.

Richard Clark is the Director of Corporate Credit for Parker-Hannifin Corporation, based in Cleveland, Ohio. Parker is a $15 billion global revenue company and is a leading world-wide manufacturer of motion and controls technologies and systems. Prior to Parker, Richard served as the Director of Global Credit for the Industrial Technologies Sector of the Ingersoll-Rand Company. Richard has thirty years of experience in credit and trade finance and has been actively engaged in global markets and risk management. He has been active with various trade associations, both international and domestic and has also served on the Board of Directors for two International Groups. Richard has made numerous presentations on international credit and trade finance and has sat on many panels throughout his career. He has traveled extensively, to over forty countries world-wide, and has managed teams that support both export trade and international, in-country receivables.

Noelle Cole, Senior Sales Manager, Global North America – Atradius

Noelle Cole brings over 25 years of experience in the trade credit insurance industry, including 8 years in buyer risk underwriting. She holds a Bachelor of Science from Stevenson University (formerly Villa Julie College) and a Master of Science with a concentration in Finance from the University of Baltimore.

As the Global Senior Sales Manager for North America, Noelle is responsible for driving business development and prospecting efforts across the region,

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

with a focus on securing multinational opportunities among companies with revenues exceeding €250 million. She plays a central role in shaping and executing sales strategy, working in close partnership with a high-performing sales team, both in region as well as worldwide, to deliver tailored trade credit insurance solutions to large multinational corporations. Noelle shares insights from her extensive experience in global business development and strategic client engagement, where AI plays a pivotal role in optimizing decision-making, streamlining operations, and delivering innovative, data-driven solutions to clients worldwide.

David Conaway, Attorney – Shumaker

David Conaway's experience, business acumen and creativity adds value for clients regarding a variety of issues involving corporate bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring; commercial contracts and business transactions; commercial disputes; and cross-border transactions, disputes and insolvencies.

David is particularly strong representing manufacturing companies, from middle market to large multinational companies in the U.S. and abroad, across many industries including agrichemicals and seeds, aluminum and glass containers and packaging, appliances, automotive, chemicals, energy, food packaging, forest products, furniture, machinery and equipment, paper and packaging, plastics and resins, steel and metals, and textiles. David has broad experience in handling commercial matters with customers, vendors, and the supply chain.

David has been involved in many of the largest insolvency cases in the U.S. and abroad including representing unsecured creditors' committees, suppliers to or customers of distressed companies, financial institutions,

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

private equity or portfolio companies, boards of directors, counter-parties to contracts and buyers of distressed assets.

He is active in cross-border matters including foreign direct investment and doing business in the U.S., cross-border business transactions, cross-border commercial disputes, and cross-border insolvencies and restructurings. He has developed and maintains long-standing personal and professional relationships with financial and legal professionals around the world to assist adding value for clients' cross-border interests. David is on the Board of Directors of Globaladvocaten, a Chambers rated Top Legal Network consisting of over 800 lawyers and is also a member of INSOL Europe, and on the Board of Editors of Eurofenix, a leading publication on global insolvency.

David supports clients and industries by devoting significant time to provide insights and updates via articles and presentations to clients, industry trade groups, and professional networks and associations.

Jenny Costley, Director, FP&A – Amsoil Inc.

Jenny Costley is the Director of Financial Planning & Analysis (FP&A) at AMSOIL Inc., a leader in synthetic lubricants. With a wealth of experience in corporate finance, Jenny specializes in strategic financial planning, performance measurement, and data-driven decision support. Her career spans roles in budgeting, forecasting, and financial modeling, with a consistent focus on aligning financial strategy with organizational goals.

Before joining AMSOIL, Jenny held various finance leadership positions that sharpened her expertise in operational finance, cross-functional collaboration, and team leadership. Known for her analytical rigor and clear communication style, she partners closely with senior executives to deliver insights that drive growth and profitability.

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Jenny holds a strong background in finance and accounting, complemented by a passion for continuous improvement and process optimization.

Raul Davila, RGCP, Senior International Credit Manager – Ravago Companies

Raul Davila is Senior Credit Manager with Ravago Americas. Raul hails from Ecuador and came to the USA over 20 years ago. Raul worked for Muehlstein from 2001 to 2008 until Muehlstein was acquired by Ravago in 2006.

Ignacio Diaz, Senior Economist, Country Risk & Economic Analysis Division – Export-Import Bank

Ignacio Diaz is a Senior Economist for EXIM Bank in the Country Risk and Economic Analysis Division (CREA). In this role, Mr. Diaz is responsible for assessing the sovereign and non-sovereign risks for the Middle East and North Africa and Oceania regions. Mr. Diaz has over three decades of experience as a country risk economist covering all parts of the world. He has helped develop country risk models and represented the U.S. Government in domestic and international forums. Before working at EXIM, he was an international economist at the USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service. Mr. Diaz earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics, Philosophy, and Political Science from Duke University in 1990 and holds a Master of Science in Foreign Service degree Georgetown University.

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Julia Ferreira, Senior Counsel – Shumaker

Julia is a corporate attorney with extensive experience in merger and acquisition (M&A) transactions, corporate restructuring, and complex business contracts. Currently, she specializes in bankruptcy and restructuring, guiding clients through challenging financial situations. Known for her strategic mindset and ability to navigate complex negotiations, Julia is dedicated to delivering practical, business-oriented legal solutions.

In her previous roles, Julia has represented both buyers and sellers in high-value transactions, with a special focus on the agribusiness, education, and health care sectors, and had advised on numerous significant transactions, including the sale of a manufacturing company for Brazilian Real (BRL) 140 million, a strategic joint venture between a major health care group and a hospital, and the consolidation of investment thesis for leading Brazilian private equity firms. She has also played a key role in structuring digital ecosystems in the dairy and heavy transport industries, assisting investors in developing innovative business models.

Julia's educational background includes an LL.M. from the University of Chicago, where she was awarded the prestigious Ann Watson Barber Outstanding Service Award in 2024. During her time at Chicago, she served as an LLM Representative for the Law Students Association, Board Member for the Latinx Law Students Association, and Co-Chair of the Graduating Students Committee. She also holds an LL.M. in Business Law from the Brazilian Institute for Capital Markets (IBMEC/MG), with coursework at Columbia Law School, and a law degree from the Federal University of Minas Gerais (UFMG), including a semester abroad at the University of Porto, Portugal. Additionally, at the Federal University of Minas Gerais, she was the Marketing Director for the Academic Athletic Association and an Editor for the Academic Voice Law Magazine. Julia is admitted to practice law in Brazil (OAB/MG) and has successfully passed the New York Bar Exam.

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Passionate about negotiation and advocacy, Julia was drawn to law by her innate drive to address injustice and achieve optimal results through strategic communication. She is recognized by peers as fast-thinking, creative, and solutions-driven, always eager to tackle new challenges with dedication and curiosity.

Outside of work, Julia is an equestrian enthusiast, having competed in show jumping for over 20 years and winning three Brazilian national championships. She also enjoys strength training, yoga, and traveling—Julia has lived in four different countries. Her love for connecting with people and experiencing new cultures fuels her dynamic and engaging approach to her legal practice.

Nicole Fisher, Counterparty Risk – Sazerac Company, Inc.

Nicole Fisher is a strategic finance and risk leader with more than 15 years of experience driving enterprise-level credit and counterparty risk management. As Counterparty Risk Manager, she founded and scaled her company's first global Counterparty Risk function, establishing the framework, governance, and analytics that now guide the global portfolio credit risk exposure. Known for her executive partnership and forward-thinking approach, Nicole advises senior leadership on credit strategy, vendor assessment, and macroeconomic risk factors that shape corporate decision-making. Her work has impacted how the organization assesses and manages financial exposure by improving decision efficiency, reducing risk concentration, and aligning risk strategy with long-term business growth.

Previously, Nicole spent a decade at Simon Property Group, working through four promotions to Credit Manager. There, she built a reputation for data-driven leadership, portfolio stability, and strategic collaboration with

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

executives across leasing, finance, and legal functions. Nicole holds an MBA in Finance from Ball State University, where she was named Outstanding Senior, and a BS in Business Administration (Finance & Risk Management) from The Ohio State University.

Stephen Georgetti, SVP, Chief Credit Officer – Allianz Trade

Steve Georgetti has been with Allianz Trade for over 18 years. He has held roles of increasing responsibility across multiple functions, ranging from Operations, Marketing, Claims and Credit. Most recently, Steve was appointed in July 2025 as SVP, Chief Credit Officer for Allianz Trade Americas. He has responsibility over 125 employees and steers a credit portfolio in excess of $200bn of exposure.

Angela Hodges, RGCP, North America Credit Manager – Edgewell Personal Care

Angela Hodges, RGCP is North America Credit Manager for Edgewell Personal Care, a global company with more than 25 market-leading personal care brands in shave, grooming, sun, skin and feminine care. In her current role with Edgewell, she has the responsibility for credit employees in the United States as well as outsourced support staff. Prior to joining Edgewell last year, Angela devoted over 15 years to Eastman Chemical Company in several roles, most recently as their Americas Credit Manager.

Since obtaining her Master's degree in International Management from the Thunderbird School of Global Management, Angela's career has been focused predominantly on international credit challenges. Angela has

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

garnered over 20 years of experience in credit management, all with Fortune 500 corporations.

Last but not least, Angela is extremely proud to have served as ICTF's Chairwoman from 2021-2023 and continues to actively serve on ICTF's Executive Board.

Enrique Lara, Head of Credit UBER B2B – Uber Technologies

Enrique Lara has over 20 years of global experience in Credit Risk Management, Collections, Treasury, and Working Capital Optimization, Enrique currently leads Uber's global B2B Credit Risk, Collection, Cash App operations, across 80 countries.

Previously at Microsoft, Enrique held multiple leadership roles across Latin America, , streamlined AR exposure, and implemented innovative financing solutions during the COVID-19 crisis. He brings deep expertise in credit policy design, debt recovery, KPI-driven performance, and stakeholder engagement.

Recognized for fostering high-performing, multicultural teams and driving culture change, Enrique is passionate about ethical leadership, strategic decision-making, and building resilient financial ecosystems that support sustainable business growth.

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Fernando Mesia, Market President Miami, SVP, Corporate Banking – Valley National Bank

Fernando Mesia is Senior Vice President Corporate Banking at Valley National serving clients nationwide. Fernando is an industry veteran with over 20 years of experience in Trade and Supply Chain Financing. In his role, Fernando works closely with clients to offer working capital solutions that address the financing needs of corporations and their supply chains to help improve growth, mitigate risk, and improve cash flow across a broad range of industries, both domestically and internationally. Fernando started his career in International Corporate Banking with a focus in Latin America.

Bryan Pederson, Growth Office Leader – FIS Global

Bryan Pederson is a seasoned FinTech industry executive with a career spanning over two decades in the financial technology sector. Currently serving as a Growth Office Leader at FIS, he specializes in delivering innovative solutions that drive growth and efficiency for clients across all industries. Bryan is known for his strategic insight, client-first approach, and consistent track record of exceeding performance goals. His leadership and deep industry knowledge make him a trusted advisor and dynamic speaker on the future of fintech and emerging technologies.

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

John Raines, Director, Market Intelligence - S&P Global

As S&P Global Market Intelligence's lead analyst for United States, Dr. John provides in-depth insight into the inner workings of the US government and its electoral cycle.

Dr. John presents his analysis in a manner that allows clients not only to understand the context of current US and global news events, but how those incidents will impact their industry's performance over time. He has appeared in numerous media outlets, such as The New York Times, The Washington Post, Time Magazine, BBC, NPR, CNBC, and The Associated Press, discussing topics like US elections, American foreign policy, and domestic legislation. In his role of principal global risk adviser, he has delivered dozens of keynote speeches and spoken to thousands of clients on macro country risk topics, from issues like populism and trade protection to US sanctions and international terrorism. In his previous work experience with the U.S. Department of State, he held roles responsible for conducting economic policy for the United States Embassy in Panama and overseeing the American Citizen Services unit in Hong Kong. He also worked at the World Bank, where he managed several projects in production of the World Development Indicators (WDI). His other assignments have included the U.S. Department of the Treasury as a Presidential Management Fellow, the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) and the World Trade Center.

Dr. John earned a Ph.D. in political science from Ohio State University and a master's degree in international relations from Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Study (SAIS).

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Alvin Roberts, CGCE, Senior Credit Manager – The Andersons, Inc.

Alvin Roberts leads risk mitigation efforts for transactional exposures outside North America. Areas of focus include structuring payment terms and other trade terms to minimize risks and improve contract execution.

Prior to joining The Andersons, held various finance roles at Lansing Trade Group, LLC and Agrex, Inc., firms trading agricultural commodities and energy products. Areas of expertise include trade finance, credit insurance, incoterms, sanctions programs/regulations, inventory finance, incoterms, transactional banking, and corporate finance.

Michael Treleaven, US Growth Leader, Trade Credit – Marsh

Mike Treleaven is Vice President of Business Development and US Growth Leader for Credit Specialties at Marsh, specializing in trade credit insurance sales, program structuring, and broking. He helps clients identify and implement optimal credit insurance solutions to manage and mitigate credit risk. Mike's expertise includes designing both traditional and alternative credit risk management programs—such as captives, supply chain finance, securitization, API-integrated solutions, syndications, and global programs.

Before joining Marsh, Mike was a partner in a specialty brokerage acquired by JLT in 2005 and subsequently by Marsh in 2018, bringing extensive experience in both the sales and servicing of complex trade credit insurance solutions.

ICTF's 16th Annual Global Credit Symposium

November 16-18, 2025

W Fort Lauderdale • Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Aryam Vázquez, Chief Economist – Export-Import Bank

Aryam Vázquez is the Chief Economist for EXIM Bank and Head of the Country Risk and Economic Analysis Division (CREA). In this role, Mr. Vázquez is responsible for developing and communicating the bank's global economic views, outlook, and forecasts, while leading the sovereign and non-sovereign risk ratings and assessment work conducted by CREA on behalf of the U.S. government.

Mr. Vázquez has over two decades of experience as a global economist, with an extensive track record in the financial services industry. He joined EXIM Bank in 2020 from SunTrust Bank, where he served as Head of Global Macro Strategy. Prior to that, Mr. Vázquez worked for Oxford Economics, a London-based macro consultancy, and Wells Fargo Bank, where he served as the Senior International Economist.

Mr. Vázquez earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Economics from Muhlenberg College in 1995 and holds a Master of Arts degree in Economics and International Affairs from Columbia University.

More Speaker Bios Coming Soon...