IIASA 2020 AWARDS GUIDELINES

The purpose of the awards is to:

- recognise and reward excellence and professionalism in internal audit;
- attract and retain high calibre members to the profession; and
- motivate members towards continual improvement.

Awards Categories:

- Excellence in internal audit leadership award
- Excellence in internal audit award: Public Sector
- Excellence in internal audit award: Private Sector
- Educator of the year award
- Young internal auditor of the year award
- Internal auditor of the year award
- Best contribution to the internal audit profession in South Africa
- Best contribution to the IIA SA Learnership program

General eligibility Criteria

- Only paid-up members of the IIA SA may submit entries.
- Nominees with a criminal record will not be considered
- Nominees must not have any pending Investigation or Disciplinary matter at the IIA SA or any other professional body.
- Current members of the IIA SA Board of directors as well as employees of the IIA SA and the Leadership Academy for Guardians of Governance (Proprietary) Limited (directly after IIA SA) are not eligible for receipt of any of the awards listed herein.

Adjudication and decision-making processes:

- Where applicable, short listed nominees' CEOs and/or Audit Committee Chairs will be interviewed as part of the process. Nominees must facilitate access to their CEOs and/or Audit Committee Chairs during the judging process as and when requested by the judging panel.
- The IIA SA Nominations and Governance Committee ("the Committee") is responsible for the adjudication process in respect of the candidates nominated.
- The Committee then makes a recommendation to the IIA SA Board of directors as to the proposed award winners.
- The Committee bases its recommendation to the IIA SA Board of directors on the following:
  - a review of documentation provided by the candidate;
  - to the extent necessary, any supplementary information provided;
  - to the extent necessary, the observations of the candidate's listed references; and
  - to the extent necessary, interviews conducted with the candidate.
