

PROFILE PETER GOSS

Peter Goss is the director of niche Subject Matter Expert company PETER GOSS (Pty) Ltd – Crisis Management, Corporate Governance & Strategy Facilitation, Strategic Forensics, Training & Induction. He spends the majority of his time in practice supporting and advising clients in various industries. Crisis Management Expe

Peter also serves as Professor of Practice: Governance and Forensic Auditing at the University of Johannesburg in two faculties (College of Business and Economics; and Faculty of Law) where he lectures part time in Corporate Governance (10 years); and Forensic Investigation (20 years).

He is a 3-decade professional veteran whose career spans the provision of support and advice to various leaders in governance, strategic & business issues, forensics crisis, leadership and ethics.

Peter is also the author of three books covering subject matters on Corporate Governance (published 2017); Fraud and Corruption Risk Governance (published 2015); and Forensic Investigation (published 2013).

His main clients are:

- Boards of directors
- Other governing bodies (Audit, Social and Ethics and other Board Committees)
- Executive directors
- Regulators
- University and business school principals
- Medical scheme medical principal officers and trustees
- Banking and insurance company CEO's
- Private high-net-worth business people
- Public sector directors general, provincial premiers, mayors, municipal managers and CEO's of State-owned companies. Amongst these was serving as one of four experts on the Panel Assessing the Prosecution Case Against Commissioner Jackie Selebe, addressing crisis and reputation challenges in a Top 3 Medical Scheme suffering wide-ranging regulatory scrutiny for corruption; in a Pretroleum Industry organisation with a USD1million financial statement loss; and in a R10billion tendering crisis and corruption challenges affecting a regulator in the Telecommunications Industry.

Amongst other roles, Professor Goss holds, or has held, the following governance, executive management and other leadership positions:

- Chairman of the Nominations Committee (Discovery Health Medical Scheme)
- Former Chairman of the Institute of Directors (Public Services Group) driving King III for which he drafted a governance framework model for the Public Sector
- Former member of the Senate: the international Pearson Institute for Higher Education (in RSA)
- Former Governing Body member (for a sum total of 15 years) of the world's largest, and separately Africa's largest indigenous, Professional Services Firms' practices in Southern Africa

- Former managing director/managing partner in various roles in the above two Firms, resigning as the Managing Director: Advisory Services in one
- Multiple-times Independent Electoral Officer leading Board/Governing Body elections