
Meeting Schedule: First Tuesday of the month, 3-4 pm

❖ Current membership: All current students (~270), alumni, faculty (full time and adjunct professors), and internship site supervisors

❖ Overview
  ➢ The National Louis University Counseling Association (NLUCA) provides students with the opportunity to begin their professional development in the counseling field. Through participation in NLUCA, students build a professional network with alumni, faculty, and internship site supervisors and have the chance to build leadership skills. NLUCA hosts a variety of events to provide continuing education opportunities to professionals in the field about many topics and involves students in each step of planning.
