LTRC 2019
41ST LANGUAGE TESTING RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM
4-8 March 2019  ❖  Atlanta, Georgia USA

LANGUAGE TESTING AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Co-Chairs:
Sara Cushing, Georgia State University
Meg Malone, Georgetown University
Organizing Committee

• Sara Cushing & Meg Malone, co-chairs
• Paula Winke, Michigan State University
• Barbara Dobson, Michigan Language Assessments
• Jee Wha Dakin, ETS
• Elvis Wagner, Temple University
• Gad Lim, generally awesome guy
• Meg Montee, Center for Applied Linguistics
Venue: Marriott Courtyard, Decatur
About Decatur

• Easy transportation from airport
• Convenient to shops & restaurants
• Georgia’s most walkable city
• Recently named 1 of 10 All-American cities for 2018
• http://www.visitdecaturgeorgia.com/directions/transportation
Convenient transit to downtown.
Conference highlights

• Invited symposium on Language Testing & Social Justice followed by reception (Tuesday evening)

• Pre-conference workshop (Tuesday 1/2 day): Language as a Human Right: Guided tour of Civil & Human Rights Museum with discussion leader

• Networking dinners (8-12 participants) at local restaurants (Wednesday evening)
Atlanta in spring

• Average temperatures 44-65° F (7 – 18° C)
• On average, 11 days in March > 70° F/ 21° C)
Atlanta attractions
Next steps

- Call for proposals available today!
- Proposals due 1 October 2018
- Proposals for workshops will be solicited next week
- For further information contact LTRC2019@gmail.com
See you next March!