

Parvinder K. Nijjar is a Deputy Attorney General with the Office of the Indiana Attorney General. She received her bachelor's degree from Indiana University Purdue University – Indianapolis in 2015 for Psychology with a concentration in Clinical Psychology and a Legal Studies minor. She received her Juris Doctorate from Indiana University McKinney School of Law with a certificate in international human rights law. During law school, Parvinder interned with human rights organizations in India and Thailand. After law school, Parvinder practiced immigration law with a focus on asylum and family immigration. Prior to her current role, Parvinder worked in the Civil Litigation division within the Office of the Indiana Attorney General. Currently, Parvinder works in the Human Trafficking Unit in the Investigations Unit. As part of her role, she works with agencies throughout Indiana on human trafficking training and serves as the co-chair of the Adult victim Services Committee of IPATH.