

Amy D. Holtz

Amy joined the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana in 2003 as courtroom deputy to Magistrate Judge Tim A. Baker. She has served with the District Court's re-entry program for federal felons, known as REACH (Re-Entry and Community Help), since its inception in 2007. Prior to joining the court, Amy worked as a litigation paralegal for Locke Reynolds (now Frost Brown Todd) for 20 years. In 1994 she was honored as the Indiana Paralegal of the Year. Amy received a Bachelor of Science degree with honors from Indiana University and is a graduate of the Roosevelt University (Chicago) paralegal program. She has been involved with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Indiana for over 30 years. Amy and her husband Ron live in Indianapolis and were blessed with their first grandchild earlier this year.
