

Roxanne Mendez Johnson

For almost twenty years, Roxanne has protected the rights of indigent clients in federal and county courts. Roxanne is an Assistant Federal Defender in Hammond, Indiana for the Federal Community Defenders Office, and represents the accused in federal criminal court in the Northern District of Indiana. For four years, Roxanne managed her own law firm, The Law Office of Roxanne Mendez Johnson. The practice focused on representing the accused in federal and county criminal courts. Roxanne served as an Assistant Federal Public Defender in the Western District of New York and the District of Arizona, Tucson Office, as an Assistant Public Defender in Genesee County, New York, and as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Charles V. Harrington, Pima County Superior Court Judge in Tucson, Arizona. Roxanne earned her Juris Doctorate from the University of Arizona, College of Law in 1999, and she graduated from the University of Notre Dame with a Bachelor's degree in Spanish.