

IoDSA Accelerated Director Programme (ADP)

Examination rules

- 1) The exam timer will automatically start when the exam is started. No additional time will be allocated in the event that you don't finish in time (i.e. within the allocated 90 minutes).
- 2) This is an open-book exam; as such, you are allowed to have your training slides, reading material and study notes available for use during the exam. No other material is allowed.
- 3) During the online exam, you are not allowed to access the internet in any way whatsoever and/or to use any AI platform. Use of such platforms will constitute cheating.
- 4) You must take the exam yourself and cannot have any other individual be present or assist you with the examination. The presence and/or use of any other individual will constitute cheating.
- 5) You are responsible to ensure you have a quiet and private space to undertake the exam.
- 6) You are responsible to use your own computer and to ensure you have reliable Wi-Fi/internet access to undertake the exam. The IoDSA shall bear no liability for any computer, Wi-Fi connection or electricity issues during the exam. As such no further time will be granted or additional attempts provided should you not be able to complete the exam during a particular sitting. As two attempts are provided, you will be required to use your second attempt in the event of such issues.
- 7) Both first and second attempt of the exam must be undertaken with the 30 day access period.
- 8) All responses to the posed questions in this paper must be answered through the prescribed portal
- 9) The exam question cannot be copied for yourself and/or shared or distributed to any third parties
- 10) Assessment result is final and no discussion or correspondence will be entered into.
- 11) By signing these exam rules, you hereby confirm that you have read and fully understand the IoDSA Examination policy and specifically agree to adhere to the sections dealing with complaints, appeals and candidate misconduct.
