coaching to improve your board applications

Overview

Designed for individuals who aspire to become non-executive directors, the IoDSA is offering you one-on-one coaching sessions, on how to go about positioning yourself for that all important first role.

Duration

3 one-hour sessions over 3 weeks with the delegate. To be conducted virtually. These sessions are private and confidential.

Key focus areas

Session 1 – Introduction, understanding of what the delegate wants to achieve in these sessions and understanding of the role of an NED

Session 2 – What knowledge, skills and experience will the delegate require and a gap analysis to be done

Session 3 – Positioning your CV appropriately and building your brand in the governance space, how to conduct yourself in an interview and conclusion

Prerequisites

Submission of draft biography and cv.

Output from the coaching

Delegates will walk away with a journal (created by the delegate) containing his/her:

- Director competencies checklist and development plan
- Elevator pitch
- Completed CV checklist
- Networking tips document
- Action items for monitoring of vacancies
- Board interview tips document
- Tips to settling in on a new board
- CPD/mentoring plan/actions

Investment cost

R6500 (excluding VAT) for all 3 private one-on-one sessions. Additional sessions required will be charged on a per session basis.

Should you wish to take up this private coaching session, please provide us with your full name, email and address to advisory@iodsa.co.za in order for us to send you a Services Agreement for signature. Once we receive the signed Agreement, we shall send you an invoice for payment and once the invoice has been paid we shall set up the three coaching sessions according to your and our facilitator availability (includes outside of normal working hours and weekends).
