SOME BASICS REGARDING REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS IN IOWA

MATTHEW J. HEKTOEN
SIMMONS PERRINE MOYER BERGMAN PLC

I. PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

A. Role of the Attorney.

The purchase agreement establishes and “locks in” the key terms of the real estate transaction. These terms include purchase price, dates of closing and possession, contingencies, description of real property conveyed, description of personal property included or excluded, responsibility for insuring the property, and a number of other provisions. Unfortunately, all too often purchase agreements are drafted by inexperienced persons. Real estate transactions are usually the most important business transactions in which people engage, and, therefore, the purchase agreement should be prepared with great care, preferably by an attorney or experienced realtor and reviewed by the parties’ attorneys. This procedure is often not followed.

1. Are you the realtor too?

Before drafting a purchase agreement, confirm whether client has a realtor. If not, expanded representation is required. Failure to provide any of the information below can result in a court-ordered rescission of the contract.

a. For ALL residential transactions -

Iowa Code Section 558A.2 provides that “[a] person interested in transferring real property…shall deliver a written disclosure statement to a person interested in being transferred the real property. The disclosure statement must be delivered prior to either the transferor making a written offer for the transfer of the real property, or accepting a written offer for the transfer of real property.”

b. For Residential Installment Sales Contracts (Four or more sales in a calendar year) -

In addition to Iowa Code Section 558A.2 disclosure, contract seller must provide information set forth in Iowa Code Section 558.70 (taxes, assessed value, amortization schedule plus much more). This information must be provided at least seven (7) days prior to the execution of the installments contract.
c. Lead Based Paint Disclosure and Protecting your Family from Lead Based Paint Brochure.

d. Radon Disclosure.

B. Typical Forms.

1. Iowa State Bar Association Iowa Docs Forms.

      Iowa Docs form 152. See Appendix A.
   b. Offer to Buy Real Estate and Acceptance

      Iowa Docs form 153. See Appendix B.

      Iowa Docs form 155. See Appendix C.
   d. Lead-Based Paint Disclosure – Sales (for dwellings built prior to 1978).

      Iowa Docs form 156. See Appendix D.

2. Typical Realtor Form.
   a. Iowa City Area Association of Realtors Purchase Agreement.

   b. Compare with Iowa Docs Residential Purchase Agreement.

3. Others.
   a. Suggestion - Make your own form, the ISBA forms work well in so far as they go, but that isn’t far. Additional benefit that use of your own agreement leads clients away from the idea that real estate is a commodity to be dealt with by standardized forms.

C. Items of Note in Purchase Agreement.

1. Examples of Common Contingency Clauses Include the Following:
a. Sale of Buyers’ Existing Property.

b. Financing Contingency.

   Be careful not to give buyers an “option” to purchase as opposed to an “obligation” to purchase.

c. Inspections.

   Inspections such as termite inspection, well tests, radon tests, septic system tests, building inspections.

2. When to Request a Survey.

   See Iowa Docs form 152 (paragraph 9). Buyers rarely are willing to spend the money necessary to survey property unless required by the lender. It would be prudent to request a survey when boundaries are unclear, potential encroachments may exist, or adequacy of access to public roads is not apparent.

3. Disclosure Issues.

   Chapter 558A of the Code requires sellers to make a good-faith disclosure relating to the condition and important characteristics of the property. See Appendix C.

4. Septic System.

   Any property with a building serviced by a septic system must have that system inspected prior to closing and the inspection attached to the groundwater hazard statement filed with the warranty deed UNLESS an exemption applies. Failure to address in a timely fashion will result in a delayed closing and upset clients.

II. TITLE EXAMINATION (Buyer’s Attorney).

A. Purpose of Preliminary Title Opinion.

   The purpose of the preliminary title opinion is to provide information to the buyers and buyers’ lender, if applicable, reporting on the merchantability of title to the real estate and warning them as to matters that they should, themselves, verify or ascertain. Your clients, the buyers, and lender, if applicable, will rely upon your title opinion. You are responsible to do it correctly.

   1. Opine as to merchantability of title and draw buyers’ attention to items of concern or interest based on Iowa law and Iowa State Bar Association Title Standards. See iowabar.org for free copy to all ISBA members.
2. Provide requirements to satisfy any objections, existing liens or encumbrances. This can be in the form of statements of objection or requirements that the seller comply with the relevant ISBA Title Standard.

3. Identify items with potential to be a lien or encumbrance.

B. Preliminary Title Opinion Contents.

1. Preliminary Items. Sample Opinion. See Appendix H.

   d. Set forth date and time of last entry.

   f. Opinion of examiner regarding current titleholder(s) and merchantability of title.
   g. Identify persons (clients) in whom title will be held.
   h. “Subject to the following objections and comments.”
      List each objection or comment separately. Lender’s love simplicity and organization.

2. Unpaid or Unreleased Mortgages.
   a. Unsatisfied mortgages.
      You should refer to unsatisfied mortgages by entry number and set forth holder of mortgage, date of mortgage, and date and location of mortgage recording. Lenders also like references to the amount secured by the mortgage.
   b. This item, if unsatisfied, could constitute a lien on the property.
c. Require documentation of satisfaction of mortgage, including release of mortgage from lending institution.

3. Unpaid Real Estate Taxes.

Unpaid real estate taxes that are not delinquent should be included in a title opinion, as should the period and year for which taxes have not been paid, and the amount owed. It is appropriate to include the language “No other taxes show as a lien” when such is the case.

4. Existing Covenants, Easements, and Restrictions.

a. Indicate whether comments are intended to be exhaustive or not.

b. Direct buyers to confirm existence of homeowner’s association and its rules and membership requirements.

c. Direct buyers to verify there are no existing and unpaid association assessments. Unpaid assessments may be a lien on the real estate.

d. Attach copies of existing association agreements and subdividers’ agreements noting any obligations therein. Depending on the municipality, you may or may not be able to secure a release of obligations to construct public improvements.

e. Note the existence and scope of any protective covenants and restrictions. See Iowa Code §614.24.

f. The particular zone of the real estate and use or restrictions in that zone.

g. Any judgments or other liens on the property.

h. Noteworthy platting and subdivision documents should be attached to opinions

5. Access.

a. Review plat to confirm legal access exists. In no plat exists (ie. ag. land) or if you can’t determine whether legal access exists, you should not as such in the opinion.

a. Who has title? - 40 year chain.
b. Encumbrances and Miscellaneous.

C. Coverage of Preliminary Title Opinion – Carve Out Clauses.

1. Attorneys should take care to provide appropriate carve out clauses in any preliminary title opinion, including:

   a. The limitations of the title opinion.
   b. Hazards of conducting a closing without an attorney or real estate professional.
   c. Admonition for clients to obtain through independent knowledge or investigation matters affecting the title not included in the abstract.
   d. Parties in possession not recorded as record title holders.
   e. Public improvements that have been ordered but not assessed.
   f. Recent unpaid claims for materials or labor.
   g. Recent unpaid utility bills.

D. Post-Closing Requirements – Final Title Opinion

1. Buyers to obtain an update to the abstract of title for the time period in between the date of continuation and through the date of closing.

2. “Information contained in the abstract” should be the limited scope of an attorney’s opinion.

3. Purpose is to show that title has been transferred, liens and encumbrances noted in the preliminary opinion have been released and that new mortgage holder, if any, has first lien on the real estate.

III. TRANSFER DOCUMENTS (Seller’s Attorney).

A. Deed

1. Type of Deed (warranty, special warranty, quit claim, court officer, trustee, deed without warranty).

2. Grantor clause (marital status; authorized persons of corporation).
3. Grantee clause
   a. Joint Tenancy
   b. Tenants in Common
   c. Marital Status
   d. Life estate or other partial interests

4. Legal description of property transferred, and subject to any limitations.

B. Declaration of Value

C. Groundwater Hazard Statement

1. This form is particularly critical for real estate in rural or county areas.

2. It is recommended to have transferor fill out in advance.

3. Be sure to pay close attention to the time-of-transfer requirements for private sewage disposal systems (septic tanks). It may need to be inspected in advance of closing, or special provisions made for its later inspection and payment of repairs. See Residential Purchase Agreement paragraph 21.

IV. TITLE GUARANTY.

Iowa Docs does not have formal title insurance, as other states do. Iowa, however, does have Title Guaranty, which provides title protection for real estate in the state. Title Guaranty now allows attorneys registered with Title Guaranty to issue Commitments (from the preliminary title opinions), Certificates (from the final title opinions), and Endorsements (additional areas of coverage). Each of these usually carries with it a fee or premium. Increasingly, lenders are requiring that attorneys representing buyers be qualified to issue these Title Guaranty Commitments, Certificates and Endorsements.

A. Commitment (See Appendix F)

1. Schedule A shows the titleholder, borrower, lender, owner’s coverage, and lender’s coverage.

2. Schedule B shows the limitations, liens and encumbrances that must be released before closing.

B. Certificate (See Appendix G)
1. Shows new titleholder and other documents recorded post-closing such as mortgage, mortgage release and deed. Also shows endorsements and limitations of coverage.

2. Can be done after four months even if abstract is not updated.

C. Refinancing

1. Form 900 is issued for title commitments for a refinance. It is a short (usually one-page) form showing pertinent title information and avoids a full review of an updated abstract.

2. Form 901 is issued for title certificates for a refinance post-closing. Again, it is a shortened version of the continuation of the abstract and final title opinion.

1. Role - The closing agent is to be in control of the closing process, to make sure the process is completed, and completed properly. The CA owes a fiduciary duty to all parties to the transaction.

A. NEW MORTGAGE: This Agreement is contingent upon the BUYERS obtaining a commitment in writing for a mortgage for not more than ___% of the purchase price with note interest at ___% or less with a term of no less than ___ years. BUYERS agree to pay all customary loan costs. The SELLERS agree to pay a discount and/or origination fee, if required, of ___%, or less, of the new mortgage obtained by the BUYERS. BUYERS agree upon acceptance of this offer to immediately make application for such mortgage with a lender and to make their best effort to obtain a mortgage commitment as above provided.

If BUYERS have not obtained a written commitment or loan denial on or before ________________, then SELLERS may rescind this Agreement by giving written notice to the BUYERS that if a mortgage commitment has not been obtained within 5 business days of receipt of such notice then this Agreement shall be null and void. If SELLERS do not choose to give such written notice, then this Agreement shall remain valid until the BUYERS have obtained a mortgage commitment or a denial.

In addition to the proceeds of the aforementioned mortgage, the BUYERS shall pay the balance of the purchase price in cash at the time of closing with adjustment for closing costs to be added or deducted from this amount.

B. ASSUMPTION OF MORTGAGE OR CONTRACT: The BUYERS shall pay a portion of the purchase price by assuming and agreeing to pay the mortgage or contract currently on this property with an approximate balance of $______________, with principal and interest payments of approximately $______________, with current interest of ____%. SELLERS shall pay interest to the date of possession. If consent of the holder of such mortgage or contract is required then this Agreement is contingent upon such consent. The BUYERS agree in good faith to make their best effort to promptly obtain such consent and to pay all expenses and assumption fees related thereto. If BUYERS have not procured such consent on or before ________________, then SELLERS may rescind this Agreement by giving written notice to the SELLERS stating that if such consent is not obtained within 5 working days of the receipt of such notice, then this Agreement shall be null and void. All payments due prior to and including the date of closing are to be paid by the SELLERS.

The balance of the purchase price shall be paid in cash at the time of closing with adjustment for closing costs to be added or deducted from this amount. If the SELLERS have an escrow account in relation to such mortgage or contract, such account shall be brought current and the SELLERS shall (check one):

- Purchase such escrow account and the balance of SELLERS’ tax obligation under paragraphs 2 and 3, if any, shall be credited to SELLERS at the time of closing.
- Assume said escrow account in lieu of SELLERS’ tax obligations and tax prorations, in which event event Paragraphs 2 and 3 herein shall not apply.
- This Agreement (is) (is not) contingent upon SELLERS’ release from liability on the mortgage/contract being assumed.

The mortgage/contract being assumed (does) (does not) provide for a variable interest rate. The mortgage/contract being assumed (does) (does not) contain a balloon payment. Date of balloon, if any:

C. CONTRACT: BUYERS and SELLERS will execute a real estate installment contract with a balance due in the amount of $______________, on the form of The Iowa State Bar Association in which BUYERS agree to pay monthly payments of $______________, including principal and interest at the rate of ____%, until the unpaid principal balance, together with accrued interest, is paid in full, or until the amount due is reduced to the amount of the mortgage now or hereinafter placed on the property by SELLERS, at which time SELLERS shall deliver to BUYERS a warranty deed. Interest shall commence on the date of possession and the first monthly payment shall be 30 days after the date of possession unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties.

The balance of the purchase price is to be paid in cash at the time of closing, with SELLERS adjustment for closing costs to be added or deducted from this amount. If SELLERS now have or hereafter place a mortgage(s) on the property, such mortgage(s) may not exceed the real estate contract balance, and the interest rate and amortization thereof shall be no more onerous than the interest rate and amortization on the real estate contract. This Agreement is contingent upon the SELLERS’ lender’s approval, if required.

This contract (shall) (shall not) have a balloon payment. Date of balloon, if any: ________________

This contract (shall) (shall not) allow BUYERS to prepay all or any part of the principal without penalty;

This contract (shall) (shall not) be due and payable in full upon sale or assignment by the BUYERS;

This contract (shall) (shall not) require 1/12 of the annual insurance premium and taxes be paid to SELLERS with the monthly payments into an escrow fund established by SELLERS. SELLERS shall use these funds to pay real estate taxes and insurance prior to their delinquency. The parties shall review and make adjustments in the escrow account during the term of the real estate installment contract.

In the event that tax payments are not escrowed, SELLERS shall pay all real estate tax installments, or portions thereof, for taxes that accrue prior to possession. BUYERS shall pay all real estate tax installments, or portions thereof, for taxes that accrue after the date of possession. The parties shall pay the installments for which they are responsible as they become due and prior to delinquency.

LEAD-BASED PAINT DISCLOSURE — SALES

Property Address or Legal Description:

Lead Warning Statement

Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the seller’s possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

Seller’s Disclosure

(i) Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing (explain).

(ii) Seller has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Buyer’s Acknowledgment (initial)

By execution of this disclosure, Buyer acknowledges receipt of copies of all information listed above including receipt of the pamphlet, Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.

This agreement is contingent upon a risk assessment or inspection of the Property for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards at the Buyer’s expense until 5 p.m. on the day of [insert date 10 days after contract ratification or a date mutually agreed upon]. (Intact lead-based paint that is in good condition is not necessarily a hazard. See the EPA pamphlet Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home for more information). This contingency will terminate at the above predetermined deadline unless the Buyer (or Buyer’s agent) delivers to the Seller (or Seller’s agent) a written contract addendum listing together with a copy of the inspection and/or risk assessment report. The Seller may, at the Seller’s option, within days after delivery of the addendum, elect in writing whether to correct the condition(s) prior to closing. If the Seller does not elect to make the repairs, or if the Seller makes a counter-offer, the Buyer shall have days to respond to the counter-offer to remove this contingency and take the property in “as is” condition or this Agreement shall become void. The Buyer may remove this contingency at any time without cause.

Buyer hereby waives this contingency. (initial).

In determining whether or not the warranted systems are in good working condition and for the purpose of inspecting the property as outlined in Paragraph 9B(1) of this Purchase Agreement, working condition shall be defined as operating in a manner in which the item was designed to operate.

B. The BUYERS must choose one of the following alternatives relative to the condition and quality of the property:

1) [ ] By ______ AM/PM on __________________, 20___, the BUYERS may, at their sole expense, have the property inspected by a person or persons of their choice, including but not limited to a qualified home inspector, contractor(s), engineer(s), or other such professional(s), to determine if there are major deficiencies in the FOLLOWING MAJOR COMPONENTS of the Real Estate: central heating system, central cooling system, plumbing system, roof, walls, ceilings, floors, foundation and basement. Upon receipt of said counter proposal from SELLERS, the BUYERS shall have FIVE (5) days in which to accept the SELLERS' counter proposal by signing it, or to notify the SELLERS in writing that such steps are not acceptable, in which case, either SELLERS or BUYERS may declare this offer null and void, and any earnest money shall be returned to BUYERS. At the time of closing or possession, whichever occurs sooner, BUYERS will accept property in its present condition without further warranties or guarantees by SELLERS or BROKER concerning the condition of the property. This, however, shall not relieve the SELLERS of any liability for any condition(s) that is (are) defined as latent defect(s) or any express written warranty contained in this Purchase Agreement or other written agreement between the parties; nor shall this paragraph relieve the SELLERS of any liability for any implied warranty applicable under Iowa law.

Buyers' Initials ___________________________ Seller's Initials ___________________________ Acknowledge they have read this page.

If active infestation or damage due to prior infestation is discovered, SELLERS shall have the option of either having the property treated for infestation by a licensed Pest Exterminator and having any damage repaired to the BUYERS' satisfaction, or declaring this Purchase Agreement void. This provision shall not apply to fences, trees, shrubs, or outbuildings other than garages. BUYERS may accept the property in its existing condition without such treatment or repairs. IF BUYERS ARE OBTAINING VA FINANCING, THEN THE COST OF THE TERMITE INSPECTION SHALL BE BORNE BY THE SELLERS.

13. ABSTRACT AND TITLE. SELLERS, at their expense, shall promptly obtain an abstract of title to the Real Estate continued through the date of acceptance of this offer, and deliver it to BUYERS for examination. It shall show merchantable title in SELLERS' names in conformity with this Purchase Agreement, Iowa law, and Title Standards of the Iowa State Bar Association. The abstract shall become the property of the BUYERS when the purchase price is paid in full. SELLERS shall pay the costs of any additional abstracting and title work due to any act or omission of SELLERS, including transfers by or the death of SELLERS or their assigns. If, at the time of closing there remain unresolved title objections, the parties agree to escrow from the sale proceeds a sufficient amount to protect the BUYERS' interests until said objections are corrected, allowing a reasonable time for the corrections of said objections; provided, however, that if the commercial mortgage lender of the BUYERS will not make the mortgage funds available with such escrow, the provisors for escrow for title defects shall not be applicable.

14. JOINT TENANCY IN PROCEEDS AND IN REAL ESTATE. If SELLERS, immediately preceding acceptance of the offer, hold title to the Real Estate in joint tenancy with full right of survivorship, and the joint tenancy is not inter disturbed by operation of law or by acts of the SELLERS, then the proceeds of this sale, and continuing or recaptured rights of SELLERS in the Real Estate, shall belong to SELLERS as joint tenants with full right of survivorship and not as tenants in common; and, BUYERS, in the event of the death of either SELLER, agree to pay any balance of the price due SELLERS under this contract to the surviving SELLER and to accept a deed from the surviving SELLER consistent with paragraph 7.

15. JOINDER BY SELLER'S SPOUSE. B. If SELLERS fail to timely perform this contract, BUYERS have the right to have all payments made returned to them.

C. BUYERS and SELLERS also are entitled to utilize any and all other remedies or actions at law or in equity available to them and shall be entitled to obtain judgment for costs and attorney fees as permitted by law.

D. In the event the BUYERS fail to perform their obligations hereunder and the SELLERS successfully forfeit any payments made under this contract, upon receipt by SELLERS, the SELLERS shall pay Broker one-half of the forfeited payment, said one-half not to exceed the total commission due to the Broker. In the event the SELLERS fail to perform SELLERS' obligations under this contract when required to do so, SELLERS shall pay to Broker the Broker's commission in the amount set forth in the SELLERS' Listing Agreement with the SELLERS' Broker.

Assuming a representation for square footage has been made, BUYERS understand and agree that said representation is only an approximation of the exact number of square feet in the property. The BUYERS shall have the right to obtain their own measurement of square footage.

22. AGENCY DISCLOSURE. The Listing and Selling Agents/Brokers are agents of the parties hereto as outlined below, and their fiduciary duties of loyalty and faithfulness are owed to the party they represent. However, they must treat the other party with honesty and fairness.

privileges for the owner of Parcel D of the SW ¼ NW ¼ (adjacent to the real estate under examination).

decreed by the Delaware County District Court that the Rocky Nook Association adversely possessed a portion of the embankment adjacent to the Lake Delhi Dam structure. Copies of these entries are attached for your reference.

Page 4191, which provides for flood hazard areas of Delaware County, Iowa and provisions applying to said land.

13. You should confirm that your intended use of the real estate conforms with the current zoning ordinances of the Town of Delhi of Delaware County, Iowa.

14. You should confirm that there are no matters affecting title from December 3, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. up to the date and hour of the closing.

TAXES

This opinion is expressly limited to matters shown in the abstract covering the period up to the date of certification. No opinion is expressed as to matters not shown in the abstract which might affect title to the real estate, among which are the following:

(a) Mechanics’ liens for services rendered or materials furnished on the premises since liens need not be filed until 90 days after the completion of the work or the materials have been furnished;
(b) rights of persons in possession;
(c) all public assessments ordered but which have not become a matter of record in the county courthouse;
(d) forged or fraudulent contracts, deeds or other instruments affecting title;
(e) any transfers, the substance and subject of which may be attacked as a fraudulent conveyance within the meaning of the Federal Bankruptcy Code or Iowa law;
(f) any defects of title which may be revealed by an accurate survey;
(g) any state of facts which might be revealed by physical inspection or soil test of the property, including but not limited to diseased trees, location of driveways, easements, fences, hedges, drainage ditches, and an encroachment of buildings which may have set the boundary lines of the property;
(h) zoning or other ordinances of the municipality or county;
(i) any flood plain regulations, encroachment limits or flood plain zoning as established by the Iowa Natural Resources Council;
(j) any security interests in fixtures attached to the real estate of which notice may be given by a financing statement that has not been filed of record;
(k) the presence of hazardous substances, pollutants, contaminants, solid wastes, hazardous wastes, and other environmentally regulated activities, including those substances defined to be hazardous in Chapter 42 of the United States Code, Section 9601(14) and Chapter 455B of the Iowa Code, which could require a purchaser, owner or lender to incur liability or remedial actions or other clean-up; and
(l) any delinquent sewer, water and garbage fees that may be assessed by various cities.

You are advised to inform yourself of these matters by independent investigation.

You should determine whether any solid waste, hazardous substances, pollutants, above or below ground storage tanks, drainage wells, water wells, land fill sites or other environmentally regulated conditions exist on the property. Such conditions are not ordinarily shown in the abstract, but they may result in injunctions, fines, required clean-up, or other remedial action under federal, state, or local laws. These laws may impose liens against the property and personal liability against the owner, even though the owner did nothing to create the condition, and acquired the property without knowing about it.

You may purchase additional protection of your interest in the real estate through an owner’s or lender’s title guaranty certificate issued by the Title Guaranty Division of the Iowa Finance Authority and purchased through our firm. A Title Guaranty Certificate provides certain protection of your interest in the property which exceeds the protection available through this opinion. If you are interested in such a Certificate or have questions concerning such Certificates, please contact me.

You are advised that if the real estate uses a sewage disposal system, you may be subject to Iowa Department of Natural Resources rules. These rules typically require all such systems be inspected for compliance upon a transfer of ownership. You should determine for yourself if the proposed real estate transfer is subject to these requirements. If so, you should be certain they are met, since failure to meet them may prevent the recording of the deed or contract.
You should confirm with the abstracter prior to closing that no additional matters, liens or encumbrances have been recorded or filed since the date of the last extension that would affect title to the property.

Respectfully submitted,
