IPSIS EXHIBITOR TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Terms and Conditions apply to exhibit opportunities at International Pain and Spine Intervention Society ("IPSIS" or "the Association") events, including Bio-Skills Labs, the Winter Seminar, European Congress, Annual Meeting, and other IPSIS events unless otherwise stated in event-specific exhibitor materials.

"Event" refers to the applicable IPSIS event. "Exhibitor" refers to the company or organization purchasing exhibit space.

1. Application and Eligibility
Applications for exhibit space must be submitted with full payment. Applications received without payment will be processed when full payment is received.

The application must be executed by an individual authorized to act on behalf of the Exhibitor.

Submission of an application does not guarantee exhibit space or location and constitutes the Exhibitor's agreement to comply with these Terms and Conditions, applicable event-specific requirements, and any additional instructions issued by IPSIS.

Exhibitors must be in good financial standing with IPSIS to participate.

IPSIS shall determine the eligibility of any company, product, or service. IPSIS may reject an application if, in its sole judgment, the company or its products, services, or proposed display are not compatible with the educational character, objectives, or interests of IPSIS or the Event.

If an application is not accepted, payments made for the exhibit opportunity will be refunded.

For the 2027 Annual Meeting, applications and full payment must be received by June 7, 2027, to be included in the initial exhibit-space assignment.

Payment requirements, including accepted currencies and payment methods, will be identified in the applicable Event materials.

2. Cancellation
No refunds will be issued for Exhibitor cancellations made within 30 days of the Event start date.

Cancellations received more than 30 days before the Event start date will be subject to a US$250 administrative fee.

IPSIS reserves the right to cancel, postpone, relocate, or materially alter an Event or exhibit activity due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including natural disaster, fire, public health emergency, government action, venue unavailability, labor disruption, or other force majeure.

If IPSIS is unable to provide the contracted exhibit opportunity and the agreement is terminated, payments made by the Exhibitor will be refunded, less expenses already incurred by IPSIS that are reasonably allocable to the Exhibitor after proration among affected exhibitors.

3. Space Assignment
Exhibit space is limited.

Assignments may take into consideration:
- Date the application and payment are received
- Applicable exhibitor or sponsorship level
- Compatibility with other exhibitors
- Past participation
- Requested exhibit location, when applicable

IPSIS reserves the right to assign exhibit space and to modify the exhibit layout, floor plan, or location of any exhibit when necessary.

Submission of an application does not guarantee a particular space or location.

4. Exhibit Space, Furnishings, and Equipment
The exhibit format, furnishings, badges, promotional benefits, attendee information, food and beverage, and other items included with each opportunity will be described in the applicable Event materials.

Unless otherwise stated, table top exhibits include a draped 6-foot table and two chairs.

Display materials or equipment may not exceed 8 feet in height without prior IPSIS approval.

Exhibits must remain within the assigned exhibit space and may not obstruct adjacent exhibits, aisles, sight lines, entrances, exits, or other areas used by attendees.

Any equipment, furnishings, displays, or services not expressly included in the exhibit package are the responsibility of the Exhibitor unless otherwise agreed in writing.

5. Exhibitor Badges and Access
The number of exhibitor badges included with each exhibit opportunity will be identified in the applicable Event materials.

Additional badges may be available for purchase based on capacity.

Exhibitor badges provide access to designated exhibit and networking areas and do not include access to accredited educational sessions unless expressly stated otherwise.

Food and beverage included with exhibitor badges will be specified in the applicable Event materials.

6. Conduct of Exhibits
Exhibitors may display or promote only products and services manufactured, distributed, sold, or otherwise represented by the Exhibitor in the regular course of business and identified in the application.

An Exhibitor may not assign, sublet, apportion, or otherwise share any portion of its exhibit space without prior written approval from IPSIS.

Exhibitors may not permit the display, promotion, sale, or marketing of products or services belonging to a non-exhibiting company without prior IPSIS approval.

Interviews, demonstrations, distribution of literature or samples, and other promotional activities must take place within the Exhibitor's assigned space unless otherwise approved.

Canvassing, solicitation, or distribution of advertising or promotional materials outside the assigned exhibit area is prohibited.

Where sales are permitted by the Event venue and applicable law, Exhibitors are responsible for complying with all licensing, registration, sales tax, VAT, GST, or other tax requirements associated with transactions conducted during the Event.

Exhibitors may not serve or distribute food or beverages from their exhibit space without prior approval from IPSIS.

Helium balloons are not permitted in exhibit areas unless specifically approved.

Products, furnishings, signage, and other materials must remain within the assigned exhibit space and must be arranged with the safety of attendees and exhibitors in mind.

All exhibits are subject to IPSIS approval. Exhibits should encourage attendees to enter or approach the assigned exhibit space without creating congestion in aisles or other common areas.

7. Exhibitor Services
Additional furnishings, electrical service, material handling, shipping, audiovisual services, or other exhibit services may be available through the Event venue or designated service provider at the Exhibitor's expense.

Ordering information, deadlines, and service instructions will be provided when applicable.

Exhibitors are responsible for all charges associated with additional services they order.

8. Shipping Instructions
Shipping, receiving, storage, material handling, setup, and move-out procedures vary by Event and venue. Event-specific shipping instructions will be provided when applicable.

Exhibitors ship all exhibit materials at their own risk and expense unless otherwise expressly stated.

All shipments must be prepaid and clearly labeled with the Exhibitor's name, company name, and any other information required in the Event-specific shipping instructions.

Exhibit materials may not be delivered to the Event venue before the permitted receiving date. Materials arriving early may be refused, redirected, or stored at the Exhibitor's expense.

IPSIS does not guarantee storage, material handling, delivery to exhibit space, storage of empty containers, or outbound freight services unless those services are specifically identified in the Event materials.

Any exhibit materials remaining after the designated move-out period may be considered abandoned and may be removed, stored, shipped, or disposed of at the Exhibitor's expense and without liability to IPSIS.

9. Installation and Dismantling
Exhibitors must install, staff, and dismantle their exhibits during the times established by IPSIS for the applicable Event.

Exhibits must be fully installed and staffed by the required opening time.

IPSIS may inspect exhibit spaces before opening.

Exhibitors that fail to appear or complete setup within the required timeframe may forfeit their exhibit space without refund.

Event-specific setup, inspection, opening, and dismantling times will be communicated in advance.

Materials and equipment must be removed by the designated move-out deadline.

10. Liability Insurance
The Exhibitor must provide proof of adequate liability insurance at least 30 days before Event setup unless otherwise specified.

Coverage must be no less than US$1,000,000, or the equivalent, combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage.

If an outside contractor is used, the Exhibitor's name and identification of the contractor must be included in the documentation provided to IPSIS.

Any additional insurance requirements imposed by a particular venue or jurisdiction will be communicated in the Event-specific materials.

11. Independent Events
Industry-sponsored or Exhibitor-hosted events associated with an IPSIS Event must receive prior approval from IPSIS.

No independent event may be scheduled in conflict with IPSIS's official educational programme, exhibit hours, or other designated Event activities.

Companies that are not participating as exhibitors may not host independent events in connection with the Event unless expressly authorized by IPSIS.

Unapproved events that conflict with IPSIS activities may jeopardize accreditation or interfere with official programming and are strictly prohibited.

12. Audio-Visual Equipment and Sound
Operation of audiovisual equipment, demonstrations, or other exhibit activities may not create noise, lighting, or other conditions that unreasonably interfere with neighboring exhibitors, educational activities, or attendees.

IPSIS may require an Exhibitor to modify or discontinue any activity it determines to be disruptive.

13. Unacceptable Exhibits
The Exhibitor agrees not to use any display, equipment, product, promotion, or activity that IPSIS determines, in its sole discretion:

- May endanger attendees, exhibitors, staff, or property
- Is inappropriate or inconsistent with the professional character of the Event
- May subject IPSIS to criticism or legal liability
- Is inconsistent with the stated purposes of IPSIS or the interests of its members
- Infringes intellectual property or other legal rights
- Violates applicable exhibit regulations or these Terms and Conditions

If IPSIS determines that an exhibit violates these Terms and Conditions, the Exhibitor will be given an opportunity to correct the violation when circumstances reasonably permit.

If the violation is not corrected, or if immediate action is necessary, IPSIS may prohibit installation of the exhibit, terminate the Exhibitor's participation, or remove the exhibit at the Exhibitor's expense.

In such circumstances, the Exhibitor waives any claim for refund of exhibit fees or damages arising from the termination or removal.

Exhibitors uncertain whether a proposed display or activity complies with these requirements should contact IPSIS in advance.

14. Insurance, Liability, and Loss of Property
Exhibitors are encouraged to insure their exhibits, merchandise, equipment, and display materials against theft, fire, damage, and other risks at their own expense.

Exhibitors should consult their insurance provider regarding appropriate coverage for property while it is away from their regular business premises, including while in transit, storage, setup, exhibition, and move-out.

Exhibit areas may not be secured when official exhibit activities are closed, and the presence of security personnel is not guaranteed unless specifically stated in the Event materials.

Neither the Event venue nor IPSIS shall be responsible for loss of or damage to Exhibitor property while in storage, in transit to or from the Event, during setup or move-out, or while located at the Event venue, except to the extent otherwise required by applicable law.

Neither the venue nor IPSIS shall be responsible for loss of income or other consequential losses resulting from loss of or damage to Exhibitor property.

Exhibitor property will be deemed to remain under the custody and control of the Exhibitor at all times.

Exhibitors are responsible for damage or injury caused by their personnel, contractors, equipment, displays, products, or activities.

15. Advertising, Giveaways, and Promotional Materials
The use or distribution of giveaways, advertising, handouts, samples, or other promotional materials during an IPSIS Event is subject to prior IPSIS approval.

Giveaways other than the Exhibitor's own products and literature require prior written approval. When requested, the Exhibitor must provide a sample of the proposed item.

Approval requests must be submitted by the applicable deadline:

- Winter Seminar: December 28, 2026
- European Congress: February 12, 2027
- Annual Meeting: August 9, 2027
- Bio-Skills Labs and other IPSIS events: By the deadline communicated in the applicable Event materials

All handouts, samples, giveaways, advertising, and promotional materials must be distributed within the Exhibitor's designated exhibit area unless otherwise approved.

IPSIS does not endorse, support, or assume liability for claims made by Exhibitors regarding their products or services.

No advertisement, handout, display, giveaway, or other promotional material may state or imply endorsement or support by IPSIS unless such endorsement has been expressly authorized in writing.

16. Copyright, Music, Fire, and Safety Requirements
The Exhibitor represents and warrants that it will comply with all copyright and intellectual property restrictions applicable to its exhibit and promotional activities.

This includes, where applicable, music performance requirements involving organizations such as ASCAP, BMI, or their international equivalents.

The Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining any license, permission, or grant of authority required for music, video, photography, artwork, presentations, or other copyrighted material used in connection with its exhibit.

Upon request, evidence of the applicable license or authorization must be provided to IPSIS no later than one month before the Event start date.

Exhibitors must comply with all fire, building, safety, and venue regulations applicable to the Event.

Flammable decorations or coverings may not be used. Fabrics and other exhibit materials must comply with applicable flame-resistance or flame-retardant requirements.

IPSIS or the Event venue may require removal of any material or equipment that does not meet applicable safety requirements.

17. Educational Independence and Miscellaneous
IPSIS conducts its accredited educational activities in accordance with applicable continuing medical education accreditation standards and requirements intended to preserve the independence of education from commercial interests.

Exhibitor activities, advertising, displays, and promotional materials must remain separate from accredited educational content and may not state or imply that IPSIS endorses a company, product, or service.

IPSIS reserves the right to refuse or discontinue the participation of any Exhibitor, product, service, display, or promotional activity that does not comply with these Terms and Conditions or does not align with the educational, scientific, professional, or practice interests of IPSIS and its members.

IPSIS shall have sole authority to interpret and enforce these Terms and Conditions as they relate to its Events and exhibitors.

Any matters not specifically addressed herein are subject to determination by IPSIS.

IPSIS may amend these Terms and Conditions upon written notice to affected Exhibitors. The Exhibitor agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions and any applicable amendments.

Event-specific exhibitor materials, applications, sponsorship agreements, schedules, service instructions, and written requirements issued by IPSIS are incorporated into these Terms and Conditions where applicable.

If an Event-specific provision conflicts with these general Terms and Conditions, the Event-specific provision will control for that Event.

Any governing law, venue requirement, or other jurisdiction-specific provision applicable to a particular Event will be identified in the applicable Event-specific exhibitor materials or agreement.
