

2019 Eliot S. Berkley Award

Applications Due Friday, October 12

Each year, in memory of our founder and longtime executive director, Eliot S. Berkley, the International Relations Council presents this award to an exceptional high-school junior or senior who has demonstrated superior academic interest and competence in international studies. The award includes a $500 scholarship.

Who Can Apply?

Currently enrolled juniors or seniors at Kansas City-area high schools

How to Apply

1. The informational form is available online at www.irckc.org and can be submitted anytime.
2. The essay should be between 1,000 and 1,200 words, with sources appropriately cited, on the following topic: *What would you identify as the single most important international problem of our time and why? 3. Your one letter of recommendation should come from an individual not related to you and demonstrate your superior academic interest and competence in international studies. It should be emailed as a PDF to mhughes@irckc.org with the subject, "Berkley Award Recommendation: [Applicant's Name]."
